The Senior Translator to Government,
Madras. ✓

Sir, I beg to state, that, on account of an acute attack of lung complaint which had been persisting for the past over two months, my health had been completely broken down and I had been advised by the Doctor to take complete rest and treatment for my ailment for atleast a period of 4 months. As a result, I had immediately applied for leave from the 8th July 1949 for a period of two months and the first instance, and had to extend my leave for another period of a month more to the extent I was eligible for leave on average pay. As this ailment had necessitated me to spend a considerable amount of money for my medical treatment, it has made me to run into debts, and as I am unable to meet this expenditure from my slender resources and as I have no other source to meet this, I beg to request that, you may be kindly pleased to sanction, as a special case, the payment of an advance of Rupees Ninety-six only (Rs 96/-) from the amount standing to my credit in my G.P. 7. Account No 3729 GA, for the above purpose. -2- The advance so sanctioned may be recovered in 16 monthly instalments of Rs 6/- each, with interest as laid down in the G.P.F. (Madras) Rules.

2. I have to my credit in my G.P.F. deposit account No 3729 G.A., Rs 299/- on this date. As two previous advances granted to me, as a special case, by Government - viz -

(1) an advance of Rs 168/- sanctioned in G.O. Ms. No. 2086, Education, dated 23.8.1948 and (2) another advance of Rs 168/- sanctioned in G.O. Ms. No. 146, Education, dated 21.1.1949 are still current; of which, (1) a sum of Rs 98/- is due to be repaid into the Fund in respect of the first mentioned advance, and (2) a sum of Rs 128/- is due in respect of the second advance, and as both these advances were sanctioned by Government, as a special case, the sanction of the Government becomes necessary under G.O. No. 213, Finance (Pension), dated 8.4.1941, for the withdrawal of the advance now applied for by me.

3. I pray, that in the circumstances mentioned above, this application may kindly be recommended and forwarded to the Government for favour of an early sanction of the advance now applied for.

Yours faithfully,

Dr. N. Bhavani Shankar Rao
