Sir,

Sub:- Colleges - Queen Mary's College, Madras - Employment of a Tutor in Tamil -

Ref:- Government Memo.31955-2/48A Education dated 26-5-48

With reference to para 2 of the above Memo the Principal Queen Mary's College, Madras has applied for sanction for the employment of an additional Assistant Lecturer in Tamil from the current academic year. The existing staff for Tamil Department consists of one Lecturer in the Madras Educational Service, one Assistant Lecturer and one pandit. There is now 39 hours of teaching work, 9 hours of written and tutorial work and about 250 composition books to be corrected a week. The correction work alone amounts to 17 hours a week calculated at the rate 15 books as equivalent to one lecture book. Under the regulations of the University a Lecturer can be given 10 to 12 hours of lecturing work and 50 exercise books for correction. Although there is no strong case for the employment of an additional Assistant Lecturer, it is not possible for the existing staff to cope with the work without the assistance of another member on the staff qualified to do translation work. I therefore recommend that a post of Tutor in Tamil may be sanctioned for a period of one year from the date of appointment in the current year.

Yours faithfully,

For Director of Public Instruction.
