Sir,

Subject: State Museum, Pudukkottai - Change into ~~Government~~ Government Museum, Pudukkottai:

-oo00oo-

The State was merged into the adjoining Madras Province on 3-3-1948, and the administration of the Museum was taken over by you on 10-3-1949. The Archaeological department which was under the control of the Curator was also taken charge of by the Archaeological Survey of the Government of India on 23-6-1949, and the local Museum is now purely under the Madras Government with the Curator as its head controlled of course, by the Superintendent of the Government Museum, Madras.

A/ It is therefore, high time that the name "State Museum" is changed into "Government Museum", Pudukkottai. On receipt of orders which I solicit at an early date, I shall effect the desired change.

CHIEF S.

I think that there are previous papers on this subject. Please verify.

23/8/49, no section notes in the book, file etc. stuff etc, maybe boxed into.

The file mentioned above is linked below. Subd. there are no previous papers on the subject.

Pub. (Poll.) Deptt.

The Museum is now known as "Pudukkottai State Museum". For the reasons stated by him the Curator, State Museum has pointed out that its name might be changed to "Government Museum, Pudukkottai". But the Secretary, E & P.H. considers that it might be sufficient to rename it as "Pudukkottai Museum". This Deptt. may perhaps point out that if the word "Pudukkottai" were to qualify the word "Museum" the change-over might not be quite perceptible. This deptt. may therefore suggest that "Government Museum, Pudukkottai" suggested by the Curator may be preferred. H.Pr. also should see the case.

May agree to rename as "Govt Museum, Pudukkottai" though personally I dislike the qualification "Govt" which is not used in other countries to designate public institutions even when maintained by the state. It savours of the past regime, when Govt was distinct from the people
