Sir,

Sub: Central College of Carnatic Music - musicians employed on the staff.

Messrs. Musiri Subramania Iyer, Budalur Krishnamoorthi Sastri, T.N. Swaminatha Pillai among others, employed on the staff of the Central College of Carnatic Music, are regular broadcasters who are paid Rs.100/- to Rs.125/- per broadcast by All India Radio. Under Government of India orders, payment to Government servants for broadcasts is limited to Rs.25/- per day. It has been represented to us by Mr. Musiri Subramania Iyer, who is broadcasting a song recital here tomorrow, 13-8-1949, that under the terms of employment the musicians have been given permission to accept outside engagements subject to a maximum per year. I request it may kindly be clarified whether under the terms of appointment the members of the staff of the Central College of Carnatic Music would be Government servants in respect of whom the limitation as to remuneration would apply.

Pending clarification the fee to Mr. Subramania Iyer for his broadcast tomorrow is being withheld; early decision of Government is requested.

Yours faithfully,

STATION DIRECTOR.

The Agenda of the Music Colleges Conference summoned by the Government of India was taken up for consideration.

1. Research: The suggestions from the Government of India be accepted with the following modifications:

1. Collection and editing of Manuscripts and research in history of Karnataka Music.
- ii. Approved, with the addition of rendering of classical compositions.
- iii, iv and v - May be accepted.

Add the following:

- vi. Research in Musical forms pertaining to Bharatanatyam and other varieties of dances in South India.
- vii. Research in resonant wood and the making of musical instruments.

2. The Council is of opinion that a research department for research in Karnataka Music should also be organised in the Central College of Karnataka Music, along with the Central Research Department in Delhi.

3. The draft constitution sent by the Government of India was considered. Resolved as follows:-

It has been the intention of the Provisional Council of the Central College of Karnataka Music from the very beginning that this institution should be developed on autonomous lines, similar to a University, the main aspects of such an institution being:-

1. An autonomous status to plan and execute its plans for the furtherance of Karnataka Music.
2. Block grants from the Governments of India and Madras.

3. To be a legal entity to collect funds and spend them.

The proposal of the Government of India may be suitably adjusted with reference to this fundamental conception.

Composition of the General Body:-

The total number of Government nominees under all categories should not be more than 12 presuming the total strength of the General Body to be 50. The General Body shall consist of;

1. Twelve members to be nominated by the Governments of Madras and India in equal numbers assuming that the total strength is 50.
2. Representatives of outstanding cultural organisations and institutions who will mostly be eminent musicians. These may be nominated by the cultural bodies and the total number shall not exceed 12.
3. A representative each of the Universities of Madras, Andhra, Annamalai, Mysore and Travancore.
4. Of the remaining 21, 11 members be lay men interested in music and 10 eminent musicians.
5. As many members as contribute not less than Rs. 500/- will be members of the General Body for a term (3 years). As many members as contribute Rs. 10,000/- and above will be life members.

Functions:- Item 3 - This be modified as follows:-

Conduct of examinations leading to the conferment of titles etc.

Items 2, 4 and 5 - No modifications.

Item 1 - Replace the word 'Graduate' by 'Advanced'.

Executive Council:-

The Executive Council shall consist of 15 members.

1. President - Minister for Education for the first 3 years, as suggested.
2. Vice-President, as suggested.
3. One officer of the Government of Madras and one from the Government of India.
4. Three music experts to be elected by the General Body out of the experts in the General Body representing institutions, subject to the condition that no member represents more than one institution.
5. One representative of the Madras University.
6. Principal (Ex-Officio)

7. Two representatives of donors to be elected by the donors.
8. Lay members 3, to be elected by the General Body out of its 11 lay members.
9. Honorary Secretary and Treasurer combined to be elected by the General Body.
10. Registrar with no vote.

The Provisional Council is of opinion that a Finance Committee may be elected by the Executive Council itself out of its members.

The General Body shall meet once in every half year.

Subject to these modifications, the proposals in the Government of India's note may be accepted.
