LEGAL DEPARTMENT.

New rule 17 modifies existing rule 17 so as to provide also for the admission to the Contributory Provident Fund of the holders of the posts of Vice Principal and Professor, Law College, Madras and Professors in the Engineering College, Madras. It will not, therefore, be in order to provide that the new rule in its entirety shall not apply to persons in service on the date of its issue. The result will be to make the rule inapplicable to persons who were appointed by direct recruitment to the administrative section of the Men's Branch of the service, from among teachers employed in recognized non-Government secondary schools, during the period from 7-4-1948 (the date of issue of existing rule 17) to the date of issue of new rule 17. This apparently is not intended. The proviso to new rule 17 may therefore be recast as follows:-

"Provided that this rule shall not apply to persons appointed to the posts aforesaid in the professional section in the Men's Branch and in service on the....., who will continue to be governed by the pension rules." The other alterations indicated in red ink on the draft notification
