R.C.No. 2613-B2/47 dated 8th October, 1949.

SIR,

ELEMENTARY EDUCATION--Mandapam Camp Higher Elementary School
non-maintenance of Teachers' Service Registers--relaxation of the rules.

In G.O.Ms.2837-Education dated 12.11.1948, the Government have approved the proposal to treat the Mandapam Camp Elementary School, Ramnad District as an aided institution from the year 1948. Accordingly, the school has to be paid Teaching grant as per rules relating to Elementary schools from 1.1.1948. The Teaching Grant has not been paid because of the fact that the rules which insist on the possession of Teachers' Service Registers by the Teachers employed in an aided elementary school are not satisfied by the school and that the Teachers do not contribute to the Teachers' Provident Fund.

As it is reported that History sheets are maintained on behalf of the Teachers, which ensure security of service and the Teachers are governed by the Code of Ceylon Government Service Regulations and that they subscribe to the Ceylon Government Provident Fund Scheme, the school may be exempted from the operation of relevant rules. I therefore request that the Government may be pleased to relax the following rules in respect of the Mandapam Camp Elementary School so that the Teaching Grant due to the school may be paid at an early date:-

- Rule 13 of the Rules for Recognition
- Rule 5 of the Rules for Aid
- Rules relating to the Provident Fund for Teachers.
