QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

[22nd April 1949]

11-30 a.m. Mr. SPEAKER:—"Under the Rules, the question time is only an hour; this one hour is now over. We have some more questions to be answered. If these are printed in the official proceedings, hon. Members will only be able to get the copies two months hence. So, I think I will take half an hour more and finish the rest of the questions. I request hon. Members not to put supplementary questions."

ABDUL HAMEED KHAN SAHIB BAHADUR:—"If the supplementary questions are not allowed, it will be preferable to have them printed in the proceedings as usual. I would make the suggestion, however, these may be separately printed and supplied to hon. Members even before they appear in the regular proceedings of the Assembly."

Mr. SPEAKER:—"Instead of that, it is better that they hear the answers now."

ABDUL HAMEED KHAN SAHIB BAHADUR:—"One side of the picture is complete when the questions are answered but unless we have the opportunity of putting supplementary questions, it will be understood that we have no supplementaries to ask."

Mr. SPEAKER:—"I have already made the point clear. It is simply because we have no time. Therefore, I think, it is better hon. Members hear the answers to their questions."

SRI P. NATESAN:—"One or two supplementary questions may be allowed on important points, Sir."

Mr. SPEAKER:—"It does not mean all questions. All right."
