Sir,

Government Press - Working - Examination of - Clerical staff - remuneration.

(B) In G.O. Mis. No. 93, Education dated 17th January 1949, the Government appointed a Committee for examining the work of the Government Press but no clerical staff was appointed for doing the work connected with the Committee's enquiry. The clerical work was got done with the help of Sri. T.C. Parthasarathy, Personal clerk to the Collector of Madras. He had to do a considerable amount of typing work. In particular the typing of the copies of the reports submitted by the Committee's staff (Annexure B to the report) and the copies of the original and revised draft of the final report occupied much time. The work was really outside his work as clerk of the Collector's office. I submit the volume of work done by the clerk justifies the grant of a special remuneration. I submit the Government may be pleased to sanction a remuneration of Rs.50/- to him.
