Copy of letter Rc.No.616/48 dated 17th November 1948 of the Registrar of Books, Madras.

I submit herewith a copy of the letter cited and beg to state as follows:-

In pursuance of the provisions of the Press and Registration of Books Act, 1867, it has been part of the duty of this office to procure and send to the Libraries of the India Office and the British Museum, free of cost, copies of the publications selected for supply by the Librarians concerned from the quarterly catalogues of registered books and periodicals published by this Office. The last consignment of such publications was sent to the India Office Library in 1946 and to the British Museum Library in 1948. The marked quarterly catalogues have not been received from either of these two Libraries with effect from the third quarter of 1946 and the procurement and despatch of publications to London has therefore been suspended.

2. In the Librarian's letter cited, mention is made of the repeal of Act XXV of 1867 (i.e., The Press and Registration of Books Act, 1867). It is presumed that, in consequence of the attainment of Dominion Status by India on the 15th August 1947, certain changes in the procedure followed by this office with reference to the Press and Registration of Books Act, have perhaps been ordered. The Librarian India Office Library (now known as the Commonwealth Relations Office Library, Division B) has requested the friendly assistance of this office in obtaining and sending the publications required by him with the bill of cost. I may state in this connection that in the past when the required publications were sent to the India Office and the British Museum Libraries, free of cost, great difficulty was experienced in obtaining copies of such publications from the keepers of the printing presses concerned and there was a large volume of correspondence on this account which considerably increased the work of the limited staff of this office. The proposal now made by the Librarian of the Commonwealth Relations Office Library, London for the supplying of publications to the Commonwealth Relations Office Library, which according to him is no longer a statutory obligation, will involve additional items of work such as the settlement of bills of cost, recovery of incidental expenditure made in this regard from Government Funds etc. and this small office with its limited staff will not, I submit be able to cope with it. The Librarian of the Commonwealth Relations Office Library may perhaps get this work done through the agency of the British High Commissioner in India more easily and with greater expedition.

3. In this connection, I solicit your kind reference to the Government Endt. No.70584 G1/47-1 Edn., & Public Health dated 27th September 1947 relating to correspondence with the Government of the United Kingdom and communicated in your Proceedings Rc.No.4408 C6/47 dated 20th October 1947 and request you to be so good as to let me know whether in these circumstances I may directly inform the librarian of the Commonwealth relations office Library of the difficulty or complying with his request and of the desirability of adopting the alternative suggestion made in paragraph 2 above regarding the procurement of Madras Publications for his Library.

Copy of letter No.L.198/48 dated 9th September 1948, from the Librarian of the Library, Commonwealth Relations Office, King Charles St., Whitehall, S.W.1., to the Registrar of Books, Madras.

Dear Sir,

The repeal of Act XXV of 1867 under which your office has in the past supplied free of cost to the India Office Library (now the Commonwealth Relations Office Library, Division B) publications registered in Madras, makes it necessary for this Library to devise a method of obtaining such publications by purchase.

May I ask for your friendly assistance in obtaining, so far as may be possible, a copy of certain of these publications, and causing them to be sent to me, with the bill?

Publications registered in Madras which this Library now desires to purchase are set out in the annexed list.

SUBJECT:

ARRANGEMENTS FOR PAYMENT OF COST OF PUBLICATIONS
SUPPLIED BY PROVINCIAL GOVERNMENTS AND INDIAN STATES TO THE COMMON WEALTH RELATIONS AND OTHER BODIES IN UNITED KINGDOM.

Sir,

I am directed to state that under some old arrangements books and publications were being supplied to the Indian Office and certain organisations in the United Kingdom (e.g. British Museum) and the cost debited to the Central Budget Head 72 Mis. A-Cost of Books and publications. It has been observed that the supply of such publications is being continued to the Commonwealth Relations office and certain other organisations. As the constitutional position has since changed, the Government of India will be glad if the Provincial Government would review the position in the light of the changed circumstances. It is suggested that books etc supplied to the authorities referred to above should be charged for by sending bills direct to them for payment.

I have the honour to submit herewith a copy of letter from the keeper, Department of Oriental Books, British Museum to the Registrar of Books, Madras and to invite the attention of Government to this Office Rc.2409 I4/48 dated 4-12-48.

The request of the Keeper of the Department of Oriental Books, British Museum is for two things viz.

1) Supply of books registered in the Province free or for payment.

2) Supply of the quarterly catalogue of books.

3) Regarding the supply of the Catalogue of books, the Superintendent, Government Press has reported in his letter No.G.O.
1446 dated 21-10-47 that copies of the Printed quarterly Catalogue of books from the 3rd quarter 1946 onwards, were being forwarded to the Keeper, Department of Oriental Books, British Museum, immediately after their publication in the Fort St. George Gazette through the Secretariat Department.

4) Regarding the supply of books the question has been submitted to Government for orders in my previous letter quoted above.

Sir,

I have the honour to inform you that the quarterly Catalogues of Books registered in the Province of Madras, which formerly used to be sent by your Office to this Department regularly, have not been received by us since the publication of the issue for the Second Quarter of 1946, which is the last number that has reached us. Other Provinces of India have very kindly continued sending to us their Quarterly Catalogues of registered books up to the present and supplying to us gratis the books recorded in them which we need for our collections; and we shall be very grateful if you will be so good as to do likewise. If it should be needful for this Department to pay for books supplied in this manner, arrangements can be made for that purpose. I may remind you that our collections of books published in Madras are very large, and have hitherto been thoroughly representative of the Province's literature, as you will have seen from the Catalogues published by us; and we are keenly desirous to keep them up to date.

I have the honour to be, Sir, your most obedient servant.

With reference to letter No. F.108/14/48-D3, dated 14-12-48 of the Government of India communicated to me for my remarks in your proceedings cited, I beg to state that, so far as this office is concerned, the extra copies of the ~~Common~~ publications required by the libraries of the India office (now known as the Commonwealth Relations office) and the British Museum, London, which were delivered to this office, free of expense to the Government, by the printers concerned in pursuance of Section 9 (b) of the Press and Registration of Books Act, 1867, were being supplied to these libraries gratis. The cost of the publications supplied to them was not recovered from the authorities thereof. But the charges incurred by this office on the transmission of publications to the British Museum alone were debited to the budget of this office and subsequently recovered from the authorities of the British Museum with reference to G.O.No.Ms. 600 Finance dated 30-9-35 (copy enclosed). No G.O. sanctioning the supply of copies of publications to the libraries referred to above free of cost is traceable in this office. As the constitutional position of India has since changed, books etc., supplied to the authorities referred to above may be charged for, as suggested by the Government of India in their letter under reference, by sending bills direct to the library authorities for payment.

2. As regards the concluding sentence of your Proceedings under reference, I beg to state that, even in the past, procuring publications and supplying them to the two libraries in question considerably increased the work of this office which has a very limited staff. The proposal of the Librarian, Commonwealth Relations office contained in para 2 of his letter under reference (namely, that copies of certain publications of this Province may be obtained by purchase and sent to him with the bill of cost) will, I submit, involve additional work for this office for the following reasons:--

(a) The authors of the publishers concerned, who may have to be addressed in future for the supply of the publications required by these two libraries, are likely to be greater in number than the printers so far addressed who, according to the Librarian of the Commonwealth Relations office, are no longer under the statutory obligation for supplying extra copies of the publications required by the London Libraries.

(b) Unlike as the case of the printers, whose full addresses are readily available in the Press Registers of this office, the addresses of many of the authors or publishers are not available in this office, and they have to be ascertained through all possible sources and then correspondence carried on with those authors or publishers.

(c) Increased correspondence will have to be carried on with a large number of authors or publishers and also with the authorities of the two London Libraries regarding the receipt and settlement of the bills of cost of the publications supplied by the former.

(d) Separate accounts will have to be maintained for the incidental expenditure such as the postal and transmission charges incurred by this office in connection with the supply of publications to the London Libraries, with a view to its being recovered subsequently; and

(e) Charges incurred on the transmission of publications were hitherto recovered from the authorities of the British Museum alone, whereas in future they will have to be recovered from the authorities of the Commonwealth Relations Office Library also.

It was for the reasons mentioned above that it was considered that, if the purchase of the publications required by the two libraries in question was effected by the British High commissioner in India (or the Dy. High commissioner in Madras) it would contribute to the prompt procurement and despatch of publications and easy settlement of accounts. The authorities of the two London libraries may perhaps, even utilise direct the services of some leading publishers and book-sellers in Madras such as Messrs. Higginbothams Ltd., for this purpose, who will, it is believe, be willing to undertake this work on payment of a small commission. If, on the other hand, it is considered that this office should undertake this work, I submit that it will necessitate the strengthening of the staff of this office.

dated 30th Sept. 1935.

ORDER:

The Government direct that the following procedure be followed in respect of books and other publications forwarded by the Registrar of Books and the Superintendent, Government Press, to the High commissioner for India for transmission to the authorities of the British Museum:--

(1) The books and publications will be packed in separate boxes and all charges incurred by the Registrar of Books and the Superintendent, Government Press, for their transmission to England should be debited to their budgets.

(2) On the 15th April every year, the Registrar of Books and the Superintendent, Government Press, will forward to government a statement of expenditure incurred by them in the preceding financial year on such transmission, and these statements will be passed on to the Accountant-General, before the end of the month. The Accountant-General will arrange with the High commissioner for the recovery of the amounts from the British Museum authorities and their adjustment in Indian accounts through the Remittance Account, the recovery being taken in reduction of expenditure of the office concerned in the financial accounts of the year.

BOOKS & PUBLICATIONS - Supply to Libraries of Commonwealth Relations Office and the British Museum.

The Librarian of the Commonwealth Relations Office, ^{London,} has asked the Registrar of Books for his assistance in securing for the use of his library copies of certain publications required by him on payment. The Librarian presumes that this might be the agreed arrangement as a consequence of the repeal of Act XXV of 1867 under which the Registrar of Books had been sending to the Library of the India Office and to the British Museum copies of all books registered in the Province. The Govt. of India have also made a reference to this Govt. on this subject. ^{They} suggest that in view of the constitutional changes, ^{the above position may now be reversed and} the books sent to the institutions referred should be changed for by sending bills direct to them.

2. It is not known whether the Press & Registration of Books Act 1867 has been repealed or whether section 11 of that Act under which copies of publications were being sent free of cost to the Libraries of the India Office and the British Museum has been modified. However, it is seen from the D.P.I.'s reports separately submitted that the books were being sent to these institutions only if required and that the last consignment of books was made to the India Office Library in 1946 and to the British Museum in 1948. Apparently on the passing of the Indian Independence Act in 1947, the relevant sections of the Press & Registration of Books Act have been modified by Adaptation Laws. In any event, in view of the suggestion of the Govt. of India, it will be sufficient to agree to the supply of the publications required by the British Institutions referred to, and charge for them. The G. of I. may be informed that we agree with them.

3. The next question to be considered is as regards the agency which should undertake this supply. When the supply was free the Registration of Books was making it. Now that the publications have apparently increased in number and that the supply has to be charged for, the Registration of Books fears that his office would have to do additional work on this account, and that for that purpose additional staff will be necessary for his office. He gives reasons for this view, as on p.13 c.f. There seems to be force in what the Regr. of Books states. In the circumstances the ~~Registrar of Books~~ ^{Govt. of India} may be asked to inform the Librarian, Commonwealth Relations office and the Keeper, Dept. of Oriental Printed Books & Manuscripts, British Museum Nat. Library ~~that~~ as it would be difficult for the office of the Registrar to undertake this work which involves maintenance of accounts, ^{correspondence and} they may kindly make necessary arrangements for securing the publications thro' the ^{or to the High Commissioner, Madras or through Messrs. Pitt Rivers} British High Commr. for India, as suggested by the Regr. or make other arrangements. This is for orders.

4. The orders to be issued as regards supply of publications need not apply to the ^{supply of the} Govt. publication "Quarterly catalogue of Books Registered in Madras" by the Keeper Dept. of Oriental Printed Books & Manuscripts British Museum who asks for a supply of it. ^{The supply of this to that body may be the} The question of the supply of this publication is dealt with in the linked file. At present four

Copies of his Catalogue are sent regularly to the Director of Archives, National Archives of India, New Delhi. It is not known how he disposes of the spare copies and whether a copy is transmitted to the British Museum. He may be asked about it and if it is found that a copy is not already furnished to the British Museum, the Registrar of Books may be asked to forward to Govt. in future five copies of the Quarterly Catalogue one of which will be for the Keeper of Dept. of Oriental Printed Books and Manuscripts, British Museum, London.

5. After orders are passed on A-B and C above, draft will be put up for approval.

AsB may be agreed to.

8.9.49. C. Instead of sending a copy of the quarterly catalogue of books through the Director of Archives, New Delhi, it may be sent ^{direct} to the Keeper, Dept. of Oriental Printed Books and MSS, British Museum, as was being done till recently.
