Roc.2283 -Cl/49 dated 19-10-49

Sir,

Sub:--Public Services--Part-time teachers--Casual leave-- Orders requested.

I submit herewith a copy of the letter Rc.28/49 dated 26-8-49 from the Principal, Law College, Madras regarding the casual failure of the Part-time Lecturer to take their classes according to the time-table.

2. At present part-time teachers working in Government Institutions - there are, among others, part-time lecturers in the Law College, are considered ineligible for casual leave. As circumstances (such as illness etc.) may arise necessitating the taking of leave by these teachers, it seems proper to allow them some casual leave in a year though not 20 days as in the case of regular Government servants. Otherwise they can be granted only leave on loss of pay whenever they are obliged to take leave even for a day or two. In this connection I may invite the attention of Government to their Memorandum No.43327-Cl/49-1 Education dated 22-7-49 approving the grant of 10 days casual leave in a year to part-time prevocational Instructors in Elementary Schools under Local Bodies and Aided Managements. I am of opinion that the same benefit be given also to part-time teachers in Government Institutions. In the circumstances, I request that Government may kindly approve the grant of ten days casual leave in a year to all part-time teaching staff in Government Service, the limit of ten days at a time being not applicable to them.

3. If the proposal in paragraph 2 above is not acceptable, the present practice in the Law College will be allowed to continue.

Yours faithfully,

For Director of Public Instruction

Sub:--Casual Leave to Part-time Lecturer. 3

Ref:--Pros. Dis.No.99/49 dated 10-1-49, Casual Leave for Part-time Lecturer.

With reference to the above where it is stated that Part-time Lecturer are not eligible for Casual Leave, I have to state that the Part-time Lecturers here being practitioners in the High Court, occasionally find, because of their engagement in the High Court, that they cannot take their classes as notified in the Time-Table. In such circumstances, what they do is, they arrange to take an extra-class on some other occasion. I take it that this is permitted and that their inability to take a class need not be regarded as absence necessitating an application for leave.
