Elementary Education Fund—Local bodies—Rent-free buildings—Repairs—Maximum limit—Raised.

READ—the following papers:—

G.O. No. 1149, Education, dated 24th June 1940.

G.O. No. 225, Education, dated 29th December 1945.

G.O. No. 404, Education, dated 4th March 1947.

From the Special Officer, District Board, Tanjore, dated 12th August 1949, Rc. B-7 No. 22583/49.
From the Director of Public Instruction, dated 18th November 1949, Roc. No. 2500-B-2/49.

Order—No. 3699, Education, dated 1st December 1949.

In G.O. No. 404, Education, dated 4th March 1947, the maximum limit up to which local bodies can incur expenditure, without the sanction of the Government, on repairs to rent-free buildings in which elementary schools are located, was raised to Rs. 300 per annum temporarily for a period of one year (that is, to be in force during 1947-48). This concession was extended during 1948-49 and 1949-50 in the case of certain local bodies who applied for such extension. It is now considered that this extension of the concession may apply to all local bodies. The Government therefore permit all local bodies till 31st March 1951, to incur expenditure up to a maximum limit of Rs. 300 per year on repairs to rent-free buildings in which their elementary schools are located.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE SECRETARIAT.

(a) If a paper is marked to be printed urgently or as special the Superintendent of the section concerned should sign the Press slip. The Superintendent should exercise a careful discretion in the matter.

(b) Each letter, memorandum, or order, or set of orders, in the file of correspondence should be headed in succession with the Roman numeral I, II, III, etc., the number being written in red ink or blue chalk above the item. The particular papers to be printed in the special issue-copies should be indicated by the Roman numeral (I, II, etc.) by which that item had been headed in the correspondence file. All matter, including marginal remarks or references, to be printed should be written in ink and matter which should not be printed should be encircled. Initials and signatures that are not quite legible should be re-written distinctly.

(c) For rules regarding printing of notes, see the chapter on printing and proof correction in the Secretariat Office Manual.

(d) The number of copies and the details of distribution should be filled in by the Superintendent or clerk concerned.

(e) In the absence of special instructions to the Press to keep matter standing for a specified period, ordinary papers of 8 pages and under will be kept standing for one week, and larger papers for two weeks only. The type of notes and of all confidential papers is distributed immediately after striking.

(f) This slip, properly and completely filled in, should accompany every paper sent to Press; it will be returned by the Press when proofs are furnished; it should be sent to the Press when a call is made for revised proofs or when a corrected proof is sent for striking. When finally returned by Press it should be filed with the original order or letter.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE PRESS.

(a) If, in the opinion of the Superintendent of the Press, a paper has been marked special of urgent unnecessarily, he should send the Press slip to the Assistant Secretary with a remark to that effect.

(b) Unless a note to the contrary is made against the matter, pencil entries should not be printed. The Superintendent of the Press may bring to the notice of the Assistant Secretary any instance of incomplete or careless diting.

(c) Signature copies of letters to the Secretary of State or to the Government of India should be printed on hand-made paper.

(d) This slip should be returned by the Press to the Secretariat when proofs are furnished; it will be sent back to the Press when proofs are returned corrected and should be finally returned to the Secretariat when struck-off copies are supplied.

(e) The names of the Secretary and Ministers or Advisers should be printed in full when they occur on the right hand side, only the first time when they appear on the left side, the initials alone being printed later.
