Sir,

Sub: Funds - Pudukkottai State employees Provident Fund Account - Advance sanctioned to Sri P.
Venkatachalam Pillai, Government Branch Press
Pudukkottai - Objection on the voucher - Sanction of Government - Request.

90992

On an application received from one Sri P.
Venkatachalam Pillai, a Machine Minder of Government Branch Press, Pudukkottai through the Officer-in-charge, Government Branch Press, Pudukkottai for an advance of Rs.192/- from the Provident Fund Accounts of that employee, to enable him to take medicine and good nourishment after his illness, he was sanctioned an advance of Rs.192/- equivalent to 6 month's pay of that employee (State scale of pay).

Before sanction the Accountant-General, Madras was addressed and he endorsed (copy enclosed) that no authorisation from the Accountant-General was necessary.

But now the Accountant-General objects stating that the advance sanctioned exceeds 3 months' pay (3 X 32 = 96) and according to G.O.Ms.No.852, Finance, dated 13-8-1949 since the Collector of Tiruchirappalli and the Special Deputy Collector of Pudukkottai only have been authorized to sanction advances not exceeding three months' pay and in other cases Government sanction being necessary, the sanction of the Government should be obtained.

I request that my action may be approved and the advance equivalent to 6 months' pay sanctioned by me on 25-5-1949 may kindly be ratified by the Government so that Accountant-General's objection may be removed.
