C. 988-C1/49 dated 30--4--1949.

Sir,

SUB: MADRAS EDUCATIONAL SERVICE - Special Rules - Tests for probationers Amendment of rule 8(d).
* * * * *

Under rule 8(d) of the special rules for the Madras Educational Service probationers in the following posts, among others officers (except those appointed otherwise than by direct recruitment who have attained the age of 45 years on the date of appointment to the posts) have to pass the Account Test for Executive officers:

Men's Branch.

Class.	Category.	Posts.
II	1	Deputy Directors.
	3	Personal Assistant to the Director of Public Instruction.
	4	District Educational Officers.
	5	Inspector (Inspectresses) of European Schools.
	7	Secretary to the Commissioner for Government Examinations.
	8	Headmaster, Government Madras-I-Azam.

Women's Branch.

VII	2	Inspectresses of Girls' Schools.
	3	Superintendents.
	4	Headmistresses.

2. I am of opinion that it is not necessary to prescribe the Test in question for transferee-officers appointed to the above posts, for the following reasons:-

(i) Deputy Directors:- The Test is prescribed for Deputy Directors but not for Divisional Inspectors. As appointment to the category of Deputy Directors is normally made by transfer from that of Divisional Inspectors and by promotion from categories 3, 4, 5, 7 and 8 of Class II and as these officers should have themselves passed the Account Test for executive officers under the present rules and acquired sufficient knowledge of account matters, it seems not necessary to prescribe the Test for Deputy Directors if they have already passed the Account Test for subordinate officers Part I.

(ii) Other posts:- Appointment to the other posts mentioned above is also made by promotion from the normal feeder subordinate services concerned. As a member of the concerned subordinate service, every probationer recruited by transfer to those posts should have passed the Account Test for subordinate services (Part-I) and acquired sufficient practical knowledge of account matters before his or her promotion to the Madras Educational Service. The syllabus and books prescribed for both am of opinion that it is not necessary to prescribe the Account Test for Executive officers and that for subordinate officers (Part-I) are identical to a large extent. The passing of the Test for Executive officers by those who ~~mi~~ have already passed the other Test serves no useful purpose and it is only an unnecessary burden on these promotee officers. I, therefore, recommend that the Account Test for Executive officers need not be prescribed for such of the transferee-probationers as have already passed the Account Test for subordinate officers-Part I.

3. If this recommendation is accepted, rule 8(d) of the special rules may be recast as follows:-

"(d) Probationers in the following posts (except those appointed otherwise than by direct recruitment who have already passed the Account Test for subordinate officers (Part-I) or have attained the age of 45 years on the date of such appointment) Viz.,"

Yours faithfully,

The Govt. do not agree with the view of the P.P.I. that the ^{La pass in} ~~passing of~~ the Account Test for Executive Officers need not be insisted on in the case of such of the transferee probationers in the M.E.S. as have already passed the Account Test for Subordinate Officers in Part I. They considered that probationers only in the posts of Dy. Dirs., whether they have ^{already} ~~passed~~ the Account Test for Subordinate Officers or not, need not be required to pass the Account Test for Executive Officers.

C.33586-A/49.

From the D.P.I., No.988-C1/49, dated 30-4-49.

M.E.S. - Account Test for certain probationers - Abolition.

Under the Special Rules for the Madras Edl. Service as they stand, all officers in the Administrative Section of the M.E.S. (except the D.P.I., Divl. Inspr. of Schools and the Inspr. of Oriental Schools in the Men's Branch and the Dy. Directress in the Women's Branch) have to pass within the period of their probation the Account Test for Executive Officers (if they are not 'promotees' who have attained the age of 45). The D.P.I. has proposed that the Test may be abolished for the reasons indicated in para 2 of his letter below.

2. The proposal in so far as it relates to the Dy. Directors (Men's Branch) may be accepted ~~whether or not they have passed the Test for Sub. Officers~~.

3. The main reason advanced in respect of the other posts is that promotion thereto is made from among subordinate service officers who should already have passed the Account Test for Subordinate Officers and the syllabus and books prescribed for the Test for Executive Officers and those prescribed for the Test for Subordinate Officers are, to a large extent, identical. The same reason was put forward last year for the relaxation in favour of an individual officer of the rule but was considered not valid. Pl. see pages 1-3 N.F. of "A".

The Dir.'s recommendation need not therefore be approved.

4. Pub. (Ser.) and Fin. may be before ciren. to H.V. (Edn.).

Amendment.

In clause (d) of rule 8 of the said Special Rules, for the entry "Probationers in the following posts (except those appointed otherwise than by direct recruitment who have attained the age of 45 years on the date of such appointment)", the following entry shall be substituted, namely:-

"Probationers in the following posts (except those appointed otherwise than by direct recruitment who have already passed the Account Test for Subordinate Officers (Part I) or have completed the age of 45 years on the date of such appointment)."
