Office of the Director of Public Instruction
Madras, dated, 31st Aug. 1949.

From
The Director of Public Instruction
Madras.

To
The Secretary to Government
Education and Public Health Department
Fort St. George, Madras.

Sir,

Subject:- GOVERNMENT SERVANTS CONDUCT RULES --
S.V.R.Home, Pudukkottai - Deputy Inspector of Schools, Pudukkottai, nominated to the Board of Management.

Reference:- Endorsements Rc.No.700-A/49 dated 9-7-1949 and 21-8-1949 of the Divisional Inspector of schools, Coimbatore Divn.

In submitting herewith copies of the letters
A.5-3717/49 dated 21-4-1949 from the Special Deputy Collector, Pudukkottai and Rc.B.10-7738/48 dated 10-5-49
from the Collector, Tiruchirapalli, I have the honour to report that the Sri Vijaya Raghunatha Home, Pudukkottai, which was started with the aid of donations from the public to afford relief to the poor and destitutes was controlled by the Government of Pudukkottai through a Board of Management. The Director of Public Instruction, Pudukkottai, was an ex-officio member of the Board. After the merger of the state with the Madras Province the Collector of Thiruchira-palli has nominated the Deputy Inspector of Schools, Pudukkottai in the place of the Director of Public Instruction, Pudukkottai (now abolished). The Divisional Inspector of Schools, Coimbatore, has reported that the work will not, in any way, interfere with the legitimate official duties of the Deputy Inspector of Schools, Pudukkottai. I, therefore, recommend that the Deputy Inspector of Schools, Pudukkottai may be permitted to serve on the Board of Management of the S.V.R.Home.

Yours faithfully

- Deputy Inspector of Schools, Pudulkottai - Nomination to the Board of Management.

8 - OCT 1949

Ref: Your Telephonic Message dated 26.9.49.

I have the honour to submit herewith a printed copy of the Rules regulating the working and management of the S.V.R. Home, R Pudulkottai, framed by the Durbar. The President of the Board of Management is appointed by the Government and he will be the ex-officio Treasurer and all financial transactions and maintenance of accounts are looked after by him and by his staff. The Deputy Inspector of Schools, Pudulkottai is simply an ex-officio member of the Board and therefore, it is presumed, that the membership is purely honorary and does not involve any collection of subscriptions or donations. If considered necessary the information required by Government will be called for from the District Educational Officer and submitted to Government.

Yours faithfully,

for Director of Public Instruction.

NOTIFICATION BY THE DARBAR.

R. C. A-7-7470 of 1938.

The following consolidated rules regulating the working and management of the Poor Home are published for the information of the public:—

RULES REGULATING THE WORKING AND MANAGEMENT OF THE POOR HOME.

Name.

A Home will be established in the town of Pudukkottai which shall go by the name of Sri Vijaya Raghunatha Home ; and it will be located in the Pichithampatti bungalow set apart for the purpose by Government.

Objects.

2. The objects of the institution of the Home are:—

- (i) to afford relief by providing accommodation, food and clothing to the poor infirm, such as, blind, lame, etc., who are incapable of eking out their livelihood,
- (ii) to open an orphanage for the protection and care of helpless children, and
- (iii) to undertake such other measures as are intended to alleviate the sufferings of poor and destitute persons of the State.

Inmates.

*3 (i) Admission to the Home will be confined to the subjects of the State at present.

(ii) No admission will be made without the Darbar's sanction.

(iii) Admissions will be confined to

(a) children under 18 years of age who either have lost both parents or have no one who can support them;

(b) cripples, and

(c) persons who, owing to old age or other bodily infirmity, are unable to work and earn their living. Persons of classes (b) and (c) will only be admitted if they are really poor

(iv) Every inmate who is neither a cripple nor infirm will be sent out of the Home as soon as he attains 18 years of age if a boy or 16 years of age if a girl.

Members.

4. Persons who pay a donation of Rs. 100, or who pay an annual contribution of Rs. 12 shall be eligible to be members of the General Body of the institution.

5. No member shall be permitted to transfer his right in the institution to another except as provided for below.

6. If a member dies his membership shall ipso facto cease.

But a member who has paid a donation of Rs. 500 or above shall be entitled to nominate a legal heir of his to succeed to his rights in the institution in the event of his death. Such nomination shall be given effect to, provided

(i) the nomination was signed by the deceased in the presence of at least two witnesses attesting the same, and

(ii) the nomination has been registered in the books of the institution kept for the purpose.

7. In the event of there being no person nominated by the deceased and entitled to succeed to his right in the institution, the nearest and the eldest heir of the deceased shall be entitled to succeed the deceased member.

Funds.

8. The funds of the institution shall be devoted for the purposes mentioned in rule 2 of the rules. They shall consist of the following items:

- (i) Donations obtained from, and endowments made by, the public.
- (ii) Subscriptions raised from the public.
- (iii) Interest on investments.
- (iv) Contribution that may be paid by the Government.
- (v) Miscellaneous receipts, such as, sale proceeds of the garden produce, eggs, fowls, honey and other articles manufactured in the institution.

The funds shall be held in such banks or securities as are approved by Government from time to time.

Management.

9. The control and management of the institution shall be in the hands of Government. But, subject to such conditions as the Government may, from time to time, prescribe, they may entrust the immediate management of the affairs of the institution to a Board of Management constituted in accordance with the provisions of these rules.

10. The Board of Management shall consist of a President, and not less than ten members of whom half the number shall be elected by the General Body of members constituted under rules 3 to 7 and the other half nominated by Government. Members of the Board shall hold office for a period of three years and continue their office after the expiry of their term of office until another Board is constituted. A retiring member of the Board shall be eligible for re-election or re-nomination as the case may be. Interim vacancies in the office of the Board of Management shall be filled by election or nomination as the case may be. A person so elected or nominated shall hold office only so long as the person in whose place he is elected or nominated would have been entitled to hold office if the vacancy had not occurred.

11. Members, who have paid a donation of Rs. 500 and above or who pay an annual subscription of Rs. 50 and above, shall be eligible for election as a member of the Board of Management. Persons who pay a donation of Rs. 5,000 and above shall have a seat on the Board of Management without being elected or nominated. Their number will be in addition to the number allowed under rule 10 of the rules.

12. The President shall be appointed by Government. The Board shall meet once every half-year, or oftener if necessary, to conduct the affairs of the institution. No decision of the Board of Management shall be valid unless it is approved by Government. All questions before the Board shall be decided by a majority of votes. The President or the presiding officer shall have a casting vote. The quorum for the meeting of the Managing Committee shall be three, of whom the President shall be one.

13. Should a nominated or elected member of the Board absent himself for three consecutive meetings he shall cease to be a member of the Board, but may be re-instated by the Board.

14. Subject to such resolutions as are passed by the Board of Management and approved by the Government, the President shall have general control over all the affairs of the institution and shall be ex-officio Treasurer and shall have the custody of all the properties of the institution. He shall also have power to appoint the members of the establishment as well as to fine, suspend or dismiss them.

Executive Committee.

15. It shall be competent to the Board of Management to appoint for the executive administration of the institution an Executive Committee consisting of the President and not less than two members from among themselves, to delegate all or any of its powers to it, and to make subsidiary rules for the conduct of business and admission of persons in the institution. Such subsidiary rules shall be entered in the minute book and shall be reported to the Government for approval.

The quorum for a meeting of the Executive Committee shall also be three. Matters of urgent importance may be settled by circulation of papers among the committee members.

16. Receipts shall be issued for all moneys paid to the institution. The receipts shall be signed by the President or by any officer of the staff empowered by the President with the approval of Government. It shall be the duty of the President to maintain such accounts and registers, and to submit to Government such returns, as are from time to time prescribed by the Government.

17. Within one month after the close of the fasli year ending with 30th June the Board shall submit to Government a report on the working of the institution with such statements of accounts as are called for by Government.

General Body.

18. The General Body of the members shall meet at least once a year.

19. The following matters shall be dealt with by the General Body:—

- (i) Election and removal of the members of the Board of Management.
- (ii) Annual report due to Government.
- (iii) Amendment or repeal of any of these rules or the enactment of a new one.
- (iv) Consideration of the annual budget.

20. A meeting of the General Body of the members may be convened whenever necessary for the conduct of business by the Board of Management and shall also be so convened by the Board at the request of 15 or more members or at the instance of Government.

21. It shall be the duty of every member to attend the meetings of the General Body. The quorum for a General Body meeting shall be 15 or one-fourth of the total number of members whichever is less. The President, when present, shall preside at the meetings of the General Body. In his absence the Body may choose a Chairman from their number to preside at the meeting. Every member present shall have one and only one vote. All questions shall be decided by a majority of votes of the members present and voting. When votes are equal the Chairman of the meeting shall have a casting vote.

22. Ten days' notice shall ordinarily be given to members before a meeting of the General Body is convened. No proposition of which notice is not given at least three days before the date of any meeting of the General Body, shall be included in the agenda for such meeting.

No addition to, alteration in, or amendment of, the rules shall be made except at a general meeting of the members, and no such addition, alteration or amendment, and no resolution passed at a meeting of the General Body, shall take effect until it shall have been approved by Government.

Should any doubt arise as to the construction of the rules, the Board of Management shall refer the same to Government for advice and act according to their advice.

The accounts of the institution will be audited once a quarter, or at least a year, by an officer deputed by Government and the institution will arrange for the publication of such accounts in such manner as may be prescribed by Government.

* Clauses (ii), (iii) and (iv) added to the rules as ordered in Darbar's Proceedings D. Dis. 8866 of 37 dated 11—9—1937.

R. KRISHNAMACHARIAR,
for Darbar.
