Completion of probation in the category of Deputy

The mother-tongue of Dr. M. Abdul Haq is Urdu (Hindustani) and he is also an Afzal-ul-ulama (First Class). He need therefore pass the Special Language Test for officers of the Education Department (Lower Standard) in Tamil or Telugu to complete his probation in the category of Deputy Directors only if the words 'any probationer' in rule 8(c) of the Special Rules for the M.E.S are taken to refer also to probationers in the category of Deputy Directors. I am of opinion that to bring such probationers within the ambit of rule 8(c) would not, in the present context, be in keeping with the purpose of the rule and that the words 'any probationer' might be taken to refer only to probationers in the ordinary grade of the M.E.S. (i.e. categories 3 to 8 of Class II of the Service) having regard to the meaning of the rule as it stood in ~~1936~~ in 1936.

2. The rule 8(c) conveys now the same meaning as in 1936 before the posts of Deputy Directors came into existence on the present scale of pay, when all posts in Class II of the M.E.S. including Deputy Directors were on the same scale of pay and were interchangeable with those of District Educational Officers, for which reason the Special Language Test had to be prescribed for the Class II as a whole. The position changed in 1942 when the posts of Deputy Directors were placed on a scale of pay higher than that of District Educational Officers, but the consequential modification of rule 8(c) was not thought of. I am of opinion that probationers in the category of Deputy Directors should not be required to pass the Special Language Test merely because rule 8(c) has not yet been amended. Moreover the second language qualification is not necessary for Deputy Directors for the proper discharge of their duties. Under the existing rules persons to be promoted to the category of Deputy Directors should have had at least three years' experience as District Educational Officer. The promotees would have acquired the language qualification while serving as District Educational Officer. I am therefore of the view that rule 8(c) should be operative ^{only} in the case of probationers in categories ~~of~~ 3 to 8 of Class II.

3. If Government, however, hold the view that rule 8(c) is applicable to Dr. Haq also, then I recommend that, for the reasons stated in para 2 above, the rule be relaxed in his favour and he be declared to have satisfactorily completed his probation in the category of Deputy Directors and that the rule be suitably amended so as to exclude probationers in the categories of Deputy Directors and Divisional Inspectors.

M.E.J. - Dr. M.A. Haq, offg. Principal, Presy. College - declared to have completed probn. in Dy. Dis. category in relaxation of rule.

G.O. (Ms.) No. 3884 dt. 19.12.49

Under section 241(5) of the G.O. Act, 1935, H.E. the Governor of Madras hereby relaxes rule 8(c) of the Spl. Rules for the M.E.S. in favour of Dr. M.A. Haq, probationer in the category of Dy. Dis. of Pub. Instrn., so that he can be declared an appd. probationer ^{in the category} although he has not passed the Spl. Lang. Test for officers of the Govt. Dept., Lower Std., prescribed in that rule.

2. Dr. M.A. Haq, offg. Principal, Presy. College, Madras, is declared to have satisfactorily

From the D.P.I., No.667-C1/49, d/- 9-8-49 and 13-10-49.

Probation of Dr. M.A. Haq in post of Dy.Dir.

The gn. of declaring Dr. M.A. Haq to have satisfactorily completed his probation in the category of Dy.Dirs. of Public Instrn., has been raised by the D.P.I. The correspondence in the C.F. may be perused. The scale of Dy.Dirs. is Rs.600-100/2-1,000. For the period for which Dr.Haq held the post of Principal, Muslim College, the Dy.Dir.'s pay was allowed to the post. The scale of Principal, Presy.College, is higher than the Dy.Dirs. Hence, the Dir.'s statement at K at p.1 C.F., that the officer's service in both the posts of Principals counts towards his probation in the Dy.Dir.'s post, is correct.

The point is whether, for his being declared an approved probationer, Dr.Haq shd. be reqd. to pass the language test. Accg. to the letter of rule 8(c) of the Spl.Rules for the M.E.S., he should pass the test. But, for the reasons given at pp.4-5 C.F., the Dir. is of the opinion that the rule should not be applied to probationers in the category of Dy.Dirs. Instead of accepting his recommendation (1) that the rule be relaxed in Dr.Haq's favour, and (2) that it may also be amended suitably so as to cover future cases, the amendment may be made now and retrospective effect given to it with effect from the date on which Dr.Haq was apptd. as Dy.Dir. Dr. Haq may be declared appd probationer after the amendment is issued. Pub.(Ser.) may see before ciren.
