Through The Proper Channel,

Sir,

Ref: Madras Government deputationist on study leave in U.S.A.
Sub: Counting of study leave period towards probationary purposes - increments.

I have the honour to state that study leave has been granted to me from 10-8-1948 to 9-8-1950 vide G.O. No.2299 Education of 13-9-1948.

I was appointed as Senior Workshop Instructor (M.E.S.) of the College of Engineering, Guindy and I took charge on the A.N. of 25-11-1946 vide G.O. Ms.2121 Education D/7-11-1946. As I was deputed overseas, I was relieved of my duties as Senior Workshop Instructor at the College of Engineering, Guindy on the A.N. of 9-8-1948.

In this connection I wish to cite that the central Government servants on study leave in this country are entitled to count this period of study leave towards their probation period of the officiating service and increments in officiating service. I request that the same privileges may please be extended to me.

Thanking you,

Yours obediently,

Under section 24(5) of the G. of I. Act, 1935, H.E. the Governor of Madras directs that the relevant rules be relaxed in favour of Sri S.L. Balasubramanian and Sri A.P. Jambulingam, offg. Sr. Workshop Instrs. in the M.E.S., who have been granted study for prosecuting higher studies in the U.S.A. and also further that the period of study leave in the case of each officer be counted towards his increment in the scale of pay of his offg. appt. in the M.E.S. subject to the condition that the D.P.I. certifies that he would have continued to officiate in the appt. if he had not been sent abroad leave; and (2) that the period of offg. service rendered by each in the category of Sr. Workshop Instrs. before he proceeded on study leave be counted towards his probation in that category irrespective of the duration of the period between the date of commencement of his leave and the date of its expiry.

2. The DPI is requested to communicate these orders to the two officers ~~also to inform them that~~

Period of study leave of officers sent overseas - Reckoning for increments.

Sri S.L.Balasubramanian and

Sri A.P.Jambulingam, among others, were recently sent overseas by this Govt. for higher studies, and granted, for the purpose, study leave for 2 years. They have now requested that the period of the study leave may be allowed to count for probation and for increment in the "officiating service", meaning apparently the posts of Senior Workshop Instructors in the M.E.S. It was under the emergency provn. that they were offg. in those posts at the time of their leaving India. Hence, the question of their drawing increments, or of their putting in probation, in the M.E.S., is not alive now. Yet, their tempy. appts. are likely to be regularized with retrospective effect, shortly. Therefore, the officers' requests may be taken up and decisions arrived at.

2. F.R.26(b) gives one the benefit of increment, during study leave, only in one's substantive appointment. Towards increment in the scale of pay of the officiating post, study leave does not count. But the principle that an officer selected to go on study leave in the interests of Govt. shd. be enabled to count the period of that leave for his increment in his offg. appt. also, has been recognized by Govt. in the case of Sri O.L.N.Reddi, Asst.Engr.(Elec.) - Vide N.F.4, 9 and 10 of "M". That principle shd. be applied to Sri S.L.Balasubramanian and Sri A.P.Jambulingam and other officers similarly sent abroad. A general order may, it is subd., be issued to the effect that Govt. servants sent by Govt. overseas on study leave can count the leave for increments in the pay-scales applicable to the posts in which they were regularly offg., subject to the condition that the Head of the Dept. concerned certifies that they would have continued to officiate in those posts had they not been sent abroad.

3. The period of probation for the Senior Workshop Instrs. is 2 years. There is no proper justification to comply with the two officers' request to count their leave for probation too. But, by having gone on study leave, they will have to lose even the actual period of service (to be regularized) rendered by them before they proceeded overseas. For, under the rules, the 2 years' probationary period shd. be done within a continuous period of 3 years whereas the period of absence of the officers on leave will itself be 2 years. This will be hard on them, and therefore, by a relaxation of the service rules, the actual period of service rendered by them may be counted for probation, the limit of 3 years' continuous period being waived. Sri O.L.N.Reddi refd. to on p.1 ante was given similar treatment.

Study leave granted under F.R. does not count for increments in officiating posts. An exception was however made in the case of Sr. O.L.N. Reddi, Asst. Engineer (Elec.) and Sr. S.L. Subramanian & Sr. A.P. Jambulingam, Offg. Senior Workshop Instructors and they were permitted to count their study leave for increments in their Offg. posts. E & P.H. have suggested that the above concession may be extended to all Govt. servants and general orders to that effect may be issued by the Finance Deptt.

2/ It is submitted that though study leave is granted to an officer in the public interests, it is ~~not~~ <sup>generally</sup> taken more for bettering their own prospects than at the instance of the Govt. Officers who are to be engaged for duties intended solely for the benefit of the Govt. are usually allowed deputation terms. Please see in this connection the first paragraph in the Annex under FR 84 in which it is stated that the study leave rules are not intended to meet the case of Govt. servants deputed to other countries at the instance of Govt. either for the performance of special duties imposed on them or for the investigation of specific problems connected with their technical duties. A Govt. servant on study leave cannot therefore reasonably claim the privileges given to one who on deputation. The principle underlying terms of study leave is that they should be less favourable than those of deputation. The circumstances explained above it is not appropriate to issue a general order that study leave will entitle for increments in offg. posts as proposed by E.P.H. Finance may advise that individual cases may continue to be examined on merits as and when they arise. E.P.H. + Public may see for marks if any.

Edn. and P.H. Dept.(A).

This dept.'s suggestion was, not that all persons granted study leave should be enabled to enjoy the concession of counting the period of the leave for increments in their offg. appts., but that <sup>(the concession should be given only to those)</sup> officers of the Edn. Dept. from the Govt., at their own initiative, selected and sent overseas with the intention of appointing them, on their return, in higher posts which required ~~special~~ special qualins. S.L.Balasubramanian and Sri A.P.Jambulingam belong to the <sup>group</sup> kind and are granted, in addn. to the study leave terms, another allowances ~~at~~ paid to private scholars sponsored under the G. of I., Ministry of Edn. scheme. The issue of general orders to cover the cases of such officers ~~will not~~ therefore not be inappropriate.

Nevertheless, this dept. may agree that individual cases may be left to be dealt with as and when they arise.

The file may be passed on to Public as desired.
