2. The date of the G.O.No.852 Finance referred to seems to be 13.8.49 (and not 18.4.49). I called for a copy of the G.O. from the Principal, Raja's College, Pudukottai (as the original G.O. has not been received in this office) and I see that, with reference to the concluding sentence of the G.O., the advances of the kind will have to be sanctioned by Government. In as much as the Collector has recommended the advance in the present case I have no objection to the advance being sanctioned by Government to the subscriber.

3. I may, however, add that proposals regarding the delegation of powers for granting advances on the basis of General Provident Fund (Madras) rules viz. by which advances can be sanctioned to employees of the Education Department by the officers of the same Department--vide V schedule of General Provident Fund (Madras) rules, and are under consideration and will be submitted shortly.
