Sir,

I beg to state that on account of the prolonged illness of my wife and children who were ailing from an attack of influenza and acute bronchitis for the past several months, I had to incur considerable expenditure to pay for their care and medical treatment and as this expenditure could not be met from any of my ordinary resources and as I had no other resource to fall back upon, I had to run into debt on this account to meet the medical charges, etc. In the circumstances mentioned above, I beg to request that you may be pleased to sanction the payment of an advance of Rs. 120/- (Rupees one hundred and twenty only) as a special case from the amount standing to my credit in my G.P.F. Account No. 6002 G.A. The amount so sanctioned may be recovered in twenty instalments of six rupees each together with interest as laid down in the G.P.F. (Madras) Rules.

2. I have on this date a sum of Rs. 265/- to my credit in my G.P.F. Account No. 6002 G.A. Two advances previously sanctioned to me viz: an advance of Rs. 110/- sanctioned by the Senior Translator to Government on 15-5-1948 and drawn by me on 24-5-1948 and another advance of Rs. 96/- sanctioned as a special case by Government in G.O. No. 90, Education, dated 17-1-1949 and drawn by me on 28-1-1949 are still current. Of the above two advances still current (1) a sum of Rs. 90/- has been repaid into my G.P.F. and a balance of Rs. 20/- is still outstanding to be repaid in respect of the first advance and (2) a sum of Rs. 40/- has been repaid into my G.P.F. and a balance of Rs. 56/- is still outstanding to be repaid in respect of the second advance.

3. As the advance of Rs. 120/- now applied for by me is the third advance and as sanction of the Government becomes necessary for the payment of the aforesaid advance, I beg to request that you may be kind enough to recommend my application to Government for favour of sanction of the advance as a special case in the circumstances mentioned above.

Yours faithfully,

J. Ranganwami Ayyangar.

Clerk, Government Telugu
Translator's Office, Madras.
