Copy of letter from the Curator, Government Oriental Manuscripts Library, University Buildings, Triplicane P.O. Madras addressed to the Director of Public Instruction, Madras. (Re No. 993/49 dated 13-12-49)

Sir,

Sub:- HOLIDAYS - GOVERNMENT - FOR 1950.

I have the honour to state that the New Year's Day and Mattupongal Day fall on Sunday the 1st January 1950 and 15th January 1950 respectively. Since Sundays are general Public holidays for almost all Government Offices, they were not mentioned specifically mentioned in the list of holidays for 1950. But Sundays are working days for this Library and I, therefore, request that you may be pleased to accord permission to close the Library on Sunday the 1st January 1950 and 15th January 1950.

-000000-

I have the honour to state that Government in G.O. cited ordered to close the Museum Galleries on the 1st and 15th Jan 1950. The 1st Jan. 1950 was the Dwadesi Day when visitors in several thousands visited the Museum. In order to regulate the crowd even special police bandobust was arranged for that day. The past practice followed here was to have the Museum Galleries open on Dwadesi Day even if it happened to fall on a weekly holiday for the Museum after obtaining special sanction from Government. Following the past precedent, Museum Galleries were kept open in anticipation of Government sanction. I request Government to approve my action.

The Mattu pongal day on the 15th Jan. 1950 is a Sunday, and as such we expect a very large crowd on that day just as on other holidays. As it is not advisable to close the Museum to the public on holidays except in the case of such days as Mahatma Gandhi's death anniversary, etc

I request Government to permit me to keep the galleries of the Museum open on the 15th January 1950. Necessary amendments to the G.O. may kindly be issued.

Early orders on the matter are solicited.

Yours faithfully,

A. Arjappan

Superintendent.
