OFFICE OF THE SUPERINTENDENT OF STATIONERY, MADRAS,
Dated 3rd February 1949.

My dear Subramanian,

STATIONERY - Appointment - Assistant Superintendent of Stamps and Stationery, Madras - Government, Education & Public Health Department, Memorandum No. 6921-1-C2 (Edn), dated 1st Feb. 1949.

Assistant
Sri D. Subbaraya Sastri, present acting/Superintendent of Stationery is a permanent Deputy Collector. He is due to retire on the 6th February 1949. In my D.O.No. 935/48, dated 30th December 1948 I submitted to the Board an application from him for extension ^{if none.} The Board has replied to me in D.O.
No.D.120/49 (Confidential), dated 20th January 1949 that the Board was not recommending the extension of service and it also ordered me to relieve him on the 6th February. I was under the impression that the Board had submitted proposals to the Government for posting another Deputy Collector in his place. I do not know whether Government have any proposals before them to post any technical expert as the Assistant Superintendent of Stationery. In any case, a competent Deputy Collector may be posted as Assistant Superintendent of Stationery for the present. The work is of a special kind and it is - necessary that an officer of real ability is posted. I am relieving Mr. Subbaraya Sastri on the 6th by placing my - Personal Assistant in additional charge.

Yours sincerely,

V.V. Subramanian

Sub: STATIONERY - APPOINTMENT

ASSISTANT SUPERINTENDENT OF STAMPS AND STATIONERY, MADRAS.

It is understood that Sri D. Subbaraya Sastri, the present acting Asst. Superintendent of Stamps and Stationery, is to retire on 6-2-1949. Sri D. Subbaraya Sastri was first posted as acting Assistant Supdt. of Stationery in G.O. 1884 Edn., dated 29-7-1948 and he took charge of the post actually in the afternoon of 4th August 1948.

2. The question of appointing a substitute to Sri D. Subbaraya Sastri as Asst. Supdt. of Stamps and Stationery has now to be taken up. It may be noted in this connection that permanent arrangements for filling up the post of Asst. Supdt. can be made only by "direct recruitment" whereas only leave vacancies may be filled by transfer from any other service. It may not be possible to spare any officer from the Government Press. It is for consideration whether a Deputy Collector may be appointed as Assistant Supdt. under the emergency provision pending a decision on the question amalgamation of Stationery and Printing Departments now under separate consideration as the result of the recommendation of the Retrenchment and Reorganisation Committee. The Supdt. of stationery may first be asked if he has any suggestions to make. For orders and Finance for remarks before circulation.
