S.S.L.C. EXAMINATIONS UNDER POLICE BUNDOBUST

Sir—Some centres in West Godavari district, it appears, had to conduct the S.S.L.C. Examinations this year under police bundobust. The circumstances compelling the Chief Superintendents to call for police aid require investigation and proper remedies. Among others, the following circumstances may be mentioned:

(a) Copying has become the order of the day, as pupils—male pupils mostly—rely for success, more upon copying than on sincere and systematic study of the subjects for examination. Printed, as well as manuscript sheets, are brought into the Examination Halls, concealed in socks, stockings and pockets of trousers, shoes, etc., to avoid the scrutiny of the Superintendents, which is resented if attempted by conscientious Superintendents. Superintendents, who are strangers to the places where the Examinations are held, are threatened with dire consequences, should they persist in the conscientious discharge of their duties.

(b) Chief Superintendents who are Headmasters of the schools easily play into the hands of the examinees, to save their position, prestige and more than either of these, their skin, surrounded as they are by rebellious and uncontrollable students.

(c) The Assistant Superintendents are like fish out of water and go to their Centres, more as sheep to the slaughter houses, as they have no protection whatsoever at the places where they are asked to superintend the Examinations. The Government instructions make Superintendents responsible for too much copying, and Assistant Superintendents, who are warned to behave 'better' towards examinees, thank their stars if they can return to their places with their backs safe.

The Departmental Officers too—some of them are strangers to the Centres—exhibit nervousness in dealing with this evil.

Under the above circumstances, I feel that conscientious Chief Superintendents are quite justified in calling for police aid for the conduct of the S.S.L.C. Public Examination.

The remedy seems to lie in holding S.S.L.C. Public Examinations at District Headquarters, or the Headquarters of a Revenue Divisional Officer, with proper police bundobust, choosing as Chief Superintendents, senior and experienced Headmasters of the school where the examination is held or any other Headmaster. Some Government officers of the rank of Tahsildars may also be deputed to assist in the supervision of the Public Examination. Unless such drastic steps are taken in future, the S. S. L. C. Examination, as it is now conducted, will demoralise pupils more than it improves their culture or scholarship.

STEM THE ROT

Sir, Reports of violence and manhandling of watchers and superintendents by S. S. I. C. examinees are received from several centres in the Presidency. Further it is common knowledge and a fairly open secret that soon after the termination of the examinations the candidates or their elders and well-wishers, guided by information gathered from authentic sources, embark on their post-examination trials to influence the Chief and Assistant examiners by all means open to them into giving them the required number of marks. The wide prevalence of these unhealthy methods and malpractices is contributing not a little to the appalling and deplorable deterioration in educational standards by making it possible for students to get through examinations without the proper exercise and cultivation of their mental faculties and without the need for labourious industry aimed at the attainment of sound intellectual equipment.

Now that we have won our independence and become masters of our own destiny, it is quite essential and vital that the youth of the country who are the future citizens, legislators and industrialists, should make the best use of the instruction imparted in schools and colleges and acquire true fitness for shouldering the burdens of administration and learn to disdain a counterfeit and spurious pass in annual tests. Students' organisations can do a lot in this direction by awakening the conscience of students and bringing home to them the danger to national progress and advancement implicit in corruption, nepotism and black-marketing in the educational field. Teachers and professors on their part can help to rid the Province of these evils by considering it an unforgivable sin to connive at and abet copying in examination halls—for in some cases watchers are known to do so out of a desire for cheap popularity—or to yield to illegitimate pressure and favour the examinees with an undeserved pass in correcting their papers. They should realise that they will thereby be causing as great a harm to the pupils in their charge and trust as some old grandmothers do by feeding ailing children out of weak and misplaced love and affection.

I think I have already sent a note that the D.P.I. may be asked to report to us cases in which copying and other things have happened and Examiners have been threatened. This is not a matter in which we can keep quiet. Unless we take up the matter seriously and put an end to these things with a heavy hand things are bound to become much worse. The D.P.I. may be asked to report in the matter as soon as possible.

(Forwarded as no. 28538.2.93.48.2. 2/28/48)

To prevent candidates from smuggling into the examination hall, manuscript papers, sheets torn from books, etc. the Chief Superintendents are asked to announce at the beginning of each session of the examination, that candidates should keep away any books or notes they may have in their possession and the Superintendents are allowed to search the person of any candidate who they suspect to have forbidden papers. Reports are received about the seizure of forbidden papers from the person of candidates during the examination notwithstanding the announcement made at the beginning of the examination to discard such papers. The Assistant Superintendents are required to be freely moving among the candidates to detect cases of malpractice. The Chief Superintendents and Departmental Officers are instructed to visit by turns, each room where the examination is held at short intervals to see that the Assistant Superintendents are exercising proper vigilance and to take such measures as may be necessary for the efficient conduct of the examination. If the Chief and Assistant Superintendents are slack in supervision, they are disqualified from such work and also from any remunerative work connected with the Government examinations in future.

In the instructions to the candidates, it is laid down that if they misbehave towards the supervisors or indulge in copying or resort to other malpractices during the examination they will be forthwith expelled from the examination and debarred for some years from taking the examination again.

As usual, this year also, numerous cases suspected of copying and possessing forbidden papers in the examination hall have been reported and action is being taken on these reports.

Till 1942 the number of examination centres, was very much restricted by amalgamating the small schools with the neighbouring big schools and pupils of schools in the interior or out-of-the-way places were asked to appear for the examination at a centre at the nearest taluk headquarters. As a result of the war conditions and the lack of facilities for boarding and lodging at the amalgamated centres, it was found necessary to constitute many separate centres. In the Urban areas, it was not possible to have combined centres owing to the large increase in the Number of candidates and the inadequacy of transport facilities, accommodation and furniture in the schools which were main centres. So, even in the mufassal areas, more schools became examination centres. These new centres are only temporary and when normal conditions are restored, the old system of combining several schools for purposes of the public examination will be followed. The old system of amalgamating centres may be revived from the examination of 1949.

From experience, it is found that it is not desirable to have too many centres and that too in out-of the way places where malpractice is freely resorted to. Reducing the number of examination centres will also reduce the cost of conducting the examination.

The suggestion to hold the examination at district or taluk headquarters is desirable, eliminating centres at other places. It is doubtful whether the services of revenue officials for the conduct of the examination will be available, as the examination is held about the end of March and the revenue officials will be busy in revenue collections at the end of the official year. It seems the examination can be well conducted with the help of the teachers in high schools. Heads of high schools should be strong disciplinarians and take strong action against unruly or troublesome pupils. The public of the locality should help in the orderly and peaceful conduct of the of the examination instead of being active supporters of the hooliganism resorted to by certain section of the candidates.

The proposal to conduct a separate public examination for the benefit of private candidates only in the month of September or October is engaging attention, since the number of private candidates will swell up in future owing to every pupil of Form VI being sent up for the examination from 1949. In most cases, it is the grown up private candidates, who are the source of trouble and indiscipline during the examinations. By holding a separate examination for the private candidates, the number of candidates to be examined in March will be reduced by 1/4 or 1/5 of the present number.

From (Name) Sri D.S.Reddi, M.A., (Oxon)., M.B.E.,
(Designation) Commissioner for Government Examinations,

To

The Secretary to Government,
Education and Public Health Department,
Fort St. George, M a d r a s.

Sir,

With reference to Government Endorsement No.28538-2-C3/48 Edn., dated 28th April 1948, I have the honour to submit the following - report about the malpractices connected with the S.S.L.C.Public Examination and the measures taken to prevent the same.

2. In connection with the S.S.L.C. Public Examination of 1948, the following number of cases of malpractice has been reported:-

- | | |
|--|-------------------|
| (i) Detection of forbidden papers like sheets torn from books, notes, manuscript sheets, containing hints etc. | 48
candidates. |
| (ii) Suspected copying reported by examiners in the course of valuation of answer papers. | 139 |
| (iii) Misbehaviour towards Superintendents. | 3 centres. |
| (a) Tenali - Throwing ink on the back of the Assistant Superintendent. | |
| (b) Masulipatam - Mob of students attempting to manhandle
the Assistant Superintendent, who checked
copying in the examination hall. | |
| (c) Kasaragod - Hooting, jeering and abusing the Superintendents. | |

All these cases were investigated and suitable punishments awarded to the offenders. The punishment usually awarded is cancellation of the VI Form School Records of the year and the results at the S.S.L.C. Public Examination and debarring the candidates from appearing for the examination for one year. In serious cases, candidates are debarred even for 2 or 3 years and in certain instances, the S.S.L.C. is cancelled. I admit, however, that a large number of cases may have escaped detection.

3. Canvassing the support of examiners:- The Chief Superintendents of examination centres are furnished with the names and addresses of the Assistant Examiners to whom the answer papers of the Centre should be sent for valuation. The Chief Superintendents are enjoined to keep this information strictly confidential. It is, however, not difficult for interested persons to get to know the names and addresses of the examiners from peons who carry the parcels to the post office or from the postal employees. With this knowledge, the guardians or others acting on their behalf approach the examiners with improper requests. In order to prevent this, it is proposed to call for the answer papers from all the examination centres to this office and make the distribution among the Chief and Assistant Examiners from this office. As the actual distribution will be known to about six people in this office it will be difficult for the candidates to know the movements of the scripts.

4. There is a rule that when an Assistant Examiner or Examiner receives a letter requesting for the award of pass marks or is approached by anyone for award of marks, liberally, he should report the incident to this office giving all the particulars to enable this office to take disciplinary action against the candidate on whose behalf canvassing was made. As no reports of this kind are generally received from examiners, I am forced to conclude that even where the examiner refuses to be influenced by recommendations he does not report this office. Sometimes currency notes are sent to the examiners by the candidates or by others on their behalf to bribe them and induce them to give pass marks, where such reports have been received from examiners and where it is proved that a candidate adopted such an improper course, the results of the candidate was cancelled besides debarring him from appearing for the examination for a year or two, no case of this kind has however occurred last year.

5. At present each Chief Examiner is required to scrutinize at least 10% of the scripts submitted to him by the Assistant Examiner. Wherever overmarking is observed, he not only reduces the marks but calls for an explanation from the Assistant if such cases happen to be numerous. If the explanation is not satisfactory the Assistant Examiner or indifference is proved, the Assistant Examiner is not only deprived of the examinership but is also debarred from undertaking such work in future either permanently or for a specified period. It is possible, however, that the Chief Examiner may not chance to pick out the paper or papers where an Assistant may have been influenced by recommendations or other considerations. In such cases the Assistant Examiner escapes detection and punishment. In addition each Chief Examiner is helped by a Special Assistant Examiner whose duty it is to see that the addition of marks is correctly made, that marks are not awarded to a question answered twice, that marks exceeding the maximum for a question are not given etc. - vide Instructions to the special Assistant Examiners enclosed. As it is, however, not his duty to bring to the notice of the Chief Examiner cases where an answer has been given undeserved marks, the check exercised by him is of limited scope. page 5-7

6. The Chief Superintendents and Assistant Superintendents are instructed to see that copying is not resorted to. In this respect, however, there appears to have been some laxity in some areas, though it may also be mentioned that the students have also developed subtler methods to avoid detection. Moreover, the present type of question papers where for many questions one word answers are required makes it easier to copy. A single whispered word or one stealthy glance at the script of another candidate is sufficient. Even admitting all these possibilities I feel that there is a growing laxity in the standard of supervision at examinations. The remuneration that is paid to the Assistant Superintendents is so poor, compared to the nature of his work and other difficult conditions, that most teachers try to avoid being posted as Assistant Superintendents. Representations have been received from Teachers' Associations in some districts, e.g., Krishna, requesting that the teachers should be relieved of this responsibility. It is, therefore, essential that the rates should be enhanced immediately as the present rates are not adequate to cover even the actual expenses on food, lodging and conveyance which an Assistant Examiner has to incur. If this is done, the Assistant Examiner need not depend on the hospitality of the local Headmaster as is at present the case in some instances. Where such hospitality is accepted, he will naturally be reluctant to discharge strictly his duties. Recommendations suggesting a modest increase in the remuneration have already been made in this office letter R.C.No.672B/46, dated 26-8-'48.

Dealt with separately.

7. If the number of examination centres is reduced and the candidates made to take the examination at new or distant places, the tendency on their part to create trouble by organising into groups will be considerably minimised. It will also enable me to post a larger number of departmental officers for invigilation work. At present, owing to the large number of centres the services of even unsuitable people have to be requisitioned. But is very doubtful if a drastic reduction in the number of centres would be practicable in view of the present position regarding food, transport and accommodation.

8. The Chief Superintendents of examination centres will be asked to announce at the commencement of the examination that if the candidates indulge in malpractice and disobey the rules or misbehave towards the supervisors, the examination centre will be closed down for succeeding examinations in addition to severe disciplinary action being taken against the offenders.

9. The heads of schools should enlist the co-operation of the leading men and parents of the locality to ensure the efficient and smooth conduct of the public examination. The parents should also co-operate with Headmaster in discouraging any boisterous, unruly or law-breaking tendencies on the part of their children, and advise their wards against committing acts of disrespect to teachers and supervisors and behaving in an indisciplined manner. They should not approach the places of examination and shout out answers or throw paper balls containing hints.

10. It is proposed to adopt the following measures also with a view to preventing malpractices during the examination:-

(i) No place or school will be an examination centre unless there are 75 to 90 candidates to be presented for the public examination. Small schools in out of the way localities may be clubbed with neighbouring schools, whatever limit is finally approved by Government, no exemptions should be granted. This limit should not, however, apply to taluk headquarters. This arrangement will reduce the number of centres considerably as can be seen from the list enclosed. page 9-11

(ii) There is only one Departmental Officer for each centre, at present, to see to the proper conduct of the examination along with the Chief Superintendent. In future, for all centres with 150 candidates or more, two departmental officers will be appointed and they will also be asked to send separate reports about any occurrences at the examination and the conduct thereof. This step is necessary as it is reported that some of the Chief Superintendents do not take a serious view of the malpractice cases brought to their notice and are reluctant to receive or submit complaints.

(iii) The supervising agency will be instructed to enforce rigorously the rule allowing them to search the person of the candidates, wherever they have reason for any suspicion, before they enter the Examination Hall with a view to preventing books, notes, manuscripts etc., from being smuggled into the hall for copying.

(iv) Examiners and Assistant Examiners will be instructed to report to this office all instances in which they are approached for marks.

(v) Headmasters will be instructed to enlist the co-operation of the leading men and parents of the locality.

(vi) Lastly, Government should instruct the Police that adequate bandobust is made at every examination centre and that calls for help from the Superintendent are responded to immediately.

These measures will not, however, eradicate the evil unless there is a greater sense of responsibility on the part of the teachers and greater co-operation from the parents. If public opinion cannot be educated to condemn such methods, any precautionary measure that is devised cannot be quite effective. At present even men of position and status do not consider it improper to approach examiners. As regards the supervising agency which is mainly composed of teachers, I do admit that there is growing laxity, partly due to the unruly behaviour of the candidates as well as outsiders. Rather than face unpopularity, abuse and even threats of violence and in some cases, actual assaults, some supervisors appear to be ignoring all but serious cases of malpractice. As long as this mentality continues, the evil cannot be rooted out. I am, however, making an appeal to all teachers.

In conclusion I feel that when the re-organization is completed, the first public examination under the revised scheme will be practically free from malpractices as the pupils themselves would have developed a greater sense of duty and would voluntarily refuse to resort to copying and other malpractices. Moreover, in the new scheme the examination itself would not have the same importance as at present.

CONFIDENTIAL.

S.S.L.C. PUBLIC EXAMINATION, 1948.

Memorandum of duties of Special Assistant Examiners.

While the Chief/Additional Examiners will, as usual, be expected to scrutinise the valuation of work of the Assistant Examiners assigned to them with a view to ensuring uniformity in valuation and to satisfying themselves, that their method of valuation is in order, the special Assistant will be expected to check the work of Assistant Examiners with special reference to the following points:-

- (1) Failure to value answers and mark them.
- (2) Awarding marks in excess of the marks allotted to the question
- (3) Awarding marks to all the alternatives or to questions in excess of the number required.
- (4) Awarding marks to incorrect answers.
- (5) Awarding more or less marks than the answers deserve.
- (6) Awarding marks to the same answers appearing at more than one place.
- (7) Mistakes in total.
- (8) Mistakes in halving.
- (9) Mistakes in transferring marks from answer books to the mark-book.
- (10) Scrutiny of the average for each school.
- (11) Consolidation of the marks entered by Assistant Examiners in the mark-sheets, and reporting them in the examiners' mark-books.
- (12) Cases in which the candidate has put some wrong register numbers should immediately be brought to the notice of the Chief/Additional Examiner and through him to the Secretary, Board of Secondary Education for rectification then and there.

2. The greatest possible care should be taken by the Special Asst. to avoid such mistakes, as (i) wrong totalling and wrong working out of averages, (ii) wrong posting in mark books and (iii) failure to note the school average, etc., as such mistakes will seriously retard the progress of tabulation work.

3. For discharging efficiently the duties mentioned in para 1 above the Special Assistant Examiner must scrutinise all the valued answer books of Assistant Examiners and mistakes detected in the course of the scrutiny should be brought to the notice of the Chief/Additional Examiner and rectified only with his knowledge and approval. No correction either in the valued answer book or in the mark-sheet should be made by the Special Assistant Examiner. All such corrections must be made by the Chief/Additional Examiner himself, under proper attestation.

4. Special Assistant Examiners may also be required by Chief/Additional Examiners to check the memorandum of work received from Assistant Examiners, draft letters, and instructions for communication Remuneration of Special Assistant Examiners.

While the Chief/Additional Examiners will, as usual, be expected to scrutinize the valuation of work of the Assistant Examiners assigned to them with a view to ensuring uniformity in valuation and to assist them themselves, their method of valuation is in order, the Special Assistant will be expected to check the work of Assistant Examiners with special reference to the following points:-

- (1) Failure to value answers and mark them.
- (2) Awarding marks in excess of the marks allotted to the question.
- (3) Awarding marks to all the alternatives or to a certain excess of the number required.
- (4) Awarding marks to incorrect answers.
- (5) Awarding more or less marks than the answers deserve.
- (6) Awarding marks to the same answers appearing at more than one place.
- (7) Mistakes in totals.
- (8) Mistakes in carrying over.
- (9) Mistakes in transferring marks from answer books to the mark-sheet.
- (10) Totalling of the average for each school.
- (11) Comparison of the marks entered by Assistant Examiners in the mark-sheets, and reporting there in to the Chief/Additional Examiner.
- (12) Cases in which the candidate has not given notice of the entry.
- (13) Cases in which the candidate has not given notice of the entry.
- (14) Cases in which the candidate has not given notice of the entry.
- (15) Cases in which the candidate has not given notice of the entry.

2. The greatest possible care should be taken by the Special Assistant to avoid such mistakes as (i) wrong marking, (ii) wrong averaging, (iii) wrong totalling in mark books and (iv) failure to take the school averages, etc., as such mistakes will seriously retard the progress of valuation work.

3. For maintaining efficiency the Chief/Additional Examiner will have to see that the Special Assistant Examiners are conscientious and that the value of their work is maintained. The Special Assistant Examiners should be brought to the notice of the Chief/Additional Examiner in the case of any mistake or omission. The Special Assistant Examiners should be brought to the notice of the Chief/Additional Examiner in the case of any mistake or omission.

4. The Special Assistant Examiners should be brought to the notice of the Chief/Additional Examiner in the case of any mistake or omission. The Special Assistant Examiners should be brought to the notice of the Chief/Additional Examiner in the case of any mistake or omission.

to Assistant Examiners, and do such other work connected with the examination as will ensure accuracy, efficiency and expedition.

5. Special Assistant Examiners must report themselves to the Chief/Additional Examiners, on the date specified in the order of appointment and remain with him until such date as he may require. They must also arrange to be present to assist the Chief/Additional Examiner at such hours and on such dates as may be convenient to him.

6. Remuneration to Special Assistant Examiners is liable to be withheld either in whole or in part for inefficient and negligent work.

Subject:-

S.S.L.C. Public Examination - Malpractices - Suggestions for the prevention of:-

R.O.C.No.296-B/48.

Station:- Madras.

Dated 16th October 1948.

From(Name):- Sri D.S. Reddi, M.A., (Oxon)., M.B.E.
(Designation):- Commissioner for Government Examinations, Madras.

To
The Secretary to Government,
Education and Public Health Department,
Fort St. George, Madras.

Sir,

Reference:-Government Endorsement No.31696/G3/48-1,
Education, dated 3-5-1948 and Memorandum
No.31698/G3/48-2, Education dated 3-9-1948.

Along with their endorsement cited above, Government sent to me for necessary action the letter dated 22-4-1948 from Dr. Naganathan, Tiruvarur (Tanjore Dt.) suggesting that to prevent malpractices at the S.S.L.C. Public Examination the number of examination centres should be reduced by combining small schools at a common centre, that assistant Superintendents should not supervise their own pupils, that pupils of a school should not be examined in the same locality, that adequate police protection should be secured for the safety of the supervisors and that the answer papers from all the examination centres should be called for at this office and got valued at Madras by summoning the examiners to this place.

The following remarks are offered on the above suggestions:-

(1) Reduction of the examination centres:- Government have already approved the suggestion that the examination should be held at the taluk and district headquarters only and this has been given effect to already in connexion with the supplemental examination to be held this month. There will be only two or three centres in each district. Girls schools presenting not less than 30 pupils for the examination will be allowed to be separate centres and two or more girls schools in a locality will be constituted as one centre. The principle of not allowing the teachers to supervise their own pupils has been in vogue from several years past. It is not practicable to ask the pupils of one school to go to a different or distant place for the examination considering the numbers and the public agitation it would create. Chief Superintendents have been instructed to enlist the help and protection of the Police where such assistance is deemed necessary. This course had to be resorted to in Kistna and Guntur districts from 1947. The Chief Superintendents have been asked to warn the candidates that if they indulge in malpractice or behave in an unruly manner, the examination will be cancelled, and that no examination will be held in that centre in future. The supervising agency will be instructed to see that whenever necessary the persons of the candidates are searched before entering the examination hall for any printed or manuscript notes or papers and seize them.

(2) Arrangements for the distribution of the answer papers for valuation:- At present, the Chief Superintendents of the examination centres are furnished with the names and addresses of assistant examiners to whom the answer papers in the several subjects and languages have to be sent for valuation. This system enables candidates and interested persons to know the allotment of scripts for valuation and gives them an opportunity for influencing the assistant examiners for illegal help. With effect from the examination of of October 1948, it is proposed to collect the answer papers from all centres at this office from where they will be distributed to the examiners and assistant examiners for marking. The Chief Superintendents and others will not have any knowledge of the distribution of the scripts. Though this system may entail some delay in checking up, re-packing and despatching the scripts to the examiners, yet it is worth a trial in order to check the present corruption. It is not practicable or feasible to summon all the assistant examiners to Madras for a stay here to finish the valuation of the answer papers as suggested by Dr. Naganathan.

Since Dr. Naganathan's letter was sent to me for necessary action along with the Secretariat Note and as it appeared that Government did not expect a reply from me, I did not send any reply so far. As it became evident from their memorandum No. 31696/G3/48-2, Education, dated 3rd September 1948 that they expected a reply from me, I am sending this reply.

Yours faithfully,

M. Naganathan

Please see the above report. The question of improving the present S.S.C. examination system with a view to preventing malpractices etc. has been taken up for examination separately.

The Commr. has sent a report which is under consideration. A further report has been called for. No separate action seems called for on this report. This may be added to the main file.

Sir,

With reference to Government Memorandum No.28538-G3-5 Edn., dated 26th November, 1948, calling for my remarks on the minutes of the Hon'ble Minister for Education, dated 6th November, 1948, I have the honour to state the following:-

- (i) The presumption is correct. Any school which presents 75 candidates or more who are pupils of that school only or by combining the neighbouring high school pupils, will be a centre.
- (ii) & (iii) This is always followed by the Headmasters concerned in consultation with the District Educational Officer with a view to providing all facilities to the pupils.
- (iv) It has been circularised to the Inspecting Officers in connection with the constitution of examination centres for the S.S.L.C. Public Examination that wherever there are not less than 30 girl students, such schools may be made centres. On administrative grounds it is not convenient or desirable to send the girl students of mixed schools to the nearest girls centre, as it involves considerable inconvenience in allotting the answer papers for valuation, striking the school averages, etc., if the pupils of the same institution are allotted to more than one centre. However, where there are considerable number of girls candidates, Chief Superintendents have been asked to provide separate seating arrangements for girls and to appoint a lady Assistant Superintendent to supervise them. This system has been working satisfactorily and may be continued.
- (v) This is usually done in consultation with the District Educational Officers or Inspectresses of Girls Schools.

I am also circulating to the Inspecting Officers items (ii), (v) and (vi) of the minutes of the Hon'ble Minister for Education for their information and guidance.

Examinations - S.S.L.C. - Revised arrangements-proposals.

Memo No. 28538 - G3 - 48-5 Edn. dated the 26th November 1948.

From the C.G.E. No. Roc. 340 - B-48 dated 3-12-48.

oOo

The Commissioner for Government Examination was drawn to the irregularities and corrupt practices which occurred in connection with the S.S.L.C. Examinations in the past and asked to submit a report. The Commissioner has submitted reports of the new arrangements which he has ordered in respect of these examinations with a view to preventing the recurrence of these irregularities. The revised arrangements are:-

(1) Reduction in the number of examination centres

(1) A reduction in the number of examination centres is proposed with a view to checking the tendency on the part of the students to create trouble by organising themselves into groups, and also in order to enable the department to post an adequate number of departmental officers for supervision of the examinations. It was at first contemplated to have the centres for the examination at the district headquarters and a few other centres and orders were issued in G.O. No. 1715 dated the 7th July '48 to that effect. This order has given rise to numerous complaints from the parents, students and others. In view of these complaints, it is now proposed to modify these orders as follows:-

Besides the district and taluk headquarters, it is proposed to have as examination centres boys' schools which present not less than 75 pupils; schools having a smaller number of candidates will be clubbed together and the examination held at a central school having facilities of accommodation and furniture. Girls' schools presenting not less than 30 candidates will be separate centres and two or more Girls' Schools in a locality will be clubbed together, the examination being held at a school having adequate accommodation and furniture. According to these arrangements there will be 307 centres for the examination in March 1949 as against 416 centres for the examination in March 1948. H.M.(Education) has already approved these proposals in the file relating to L.A. Question file (Linked file - C.No.71738/48-). and in the notes in G.O.No.3099 Edn. dated 6-12-48. A formal order modifying para 1(3) of G.O.No. 1715 Edn. dated the 7th July 1948 will have to be issued.

(2) In future, for all centres with 150 candidates or more, two departmental officers will be appointed for supervision and Railway they will be asked to send separate reports about any occurrence in connection with the examination.

(3) The Supervising agency will be instructed to enforce rigorously the rule allowing them to search the persons of the candidates, whenever there is reason for any suspicion.

(4) The Chief Superintendent will not in future be furnished with the names and addresses of the Assistant Examiners to whom answer papers of the centre, which will be sent direct to the Commissioner's office from where they will be distributed to the Assistant Examiners. This will prevent the candidates from getting at the Assist.Examiners, as the names and addresses of these will be kept confidential and not be available to the Superintendent of the Centre. With reference to this arrangement, the C.G.E. may be asked to see that there is no delay on the part of the his office in the distribution of the answer papers for valuation.

(5) Examiners and Assistant Examiners will be instructed to report to the C.G.E. all instances in which they are approached for marks.

(6) Headmasters will be instructed to enlist the Co-operation of the leading men and parents of the locality,

(7) The Government should instruct the Police that adequate bandobust is made at every examination centre and that calls for help from the Superintendent are responded to immediately.

2.The Commissioner does not ask for the approval of Government for all these proposals, but orders of Govt. seem to be necessary on item (i) regarding the centres as already observed.

3. As regards the suggestion for police bandobust, this is apparently provided now. However, C.G.E.'s suggestion may be remitted to Home who may be asked to issue instructions to the I.G. in the matter.

4.The need for increasing the rates of remuneration for Assistant Superintendents is stressed. The Commissioner's proposals in this regard are separately under consideration and will be referred to the S.F.C.

5.Action will also be taken with reference to H.M.'s suggestions in his minute on pages 1-2 ante. As regards girl students of school with less than 30 girls, separate seating arrangements will be made and a lady Assistant Superintendent will be appointed for the Centre concerned.

6.Finance may see the case for remarks, if any, before circulation. It would seem sufficient to send this file to Home with reference to para 3 above.

Home Department.

Please see the notes on pp. 3-5 above.

The file has been sent to this Dept.

with ref. to the suggestion of the E. & P.H. Secy. that this Dept. may issue general instructions to the Police may be issued to render help to the Chief Supdts. of the S.S.L.C. Public examination when the examination is conducted at the examination centres. The Commr. for Govt. Examinations has suggested that adequate Police bandobust is made at every examination centre and that calls for help from the Supdt. are responded to immediately. In the letter at p. 97 c.f. the Commr. for Govt. Examinations has stated that the Chief Supdts. have been asked to enlist the help and protection of the Police when such help is deemed necessary. The E. & P.H. Secy.'s suggestion may be accepted. A draft memo. is submitted for approval. After issue, the file may be returned to E. & P.H.

The case deals with the revised arrangements of the Commissioner for Govt. Examinations for the holding of the S.S.L.C. Examinations, with a view to preventing the corrupt practices and irregularities prevalent in the past. The notes from page 3 ANTE may be perused.

It is proposed to approve the arrangements proposed and to issue orders modifying the Govt's previous orders of last year relating to the holding of the examinations at the district and taluk centres. H.M. has already approved the new arrangement of making High Schools presenting not less than 75 candidates, in the case of boys and Girls' High Schools presenting not less than 30 candidates, centres for the examination. Formal orders may issue now.

It is proposed to ask the C.G.E. to see that in carrying out the revised arrangements, that there is no delay to despatch the answer papers for valuation.

With reference to the C.G.E.'s suggestion for the affording of police help in connection with the examinations, the Home Dept. have asked the I.G. of Police to see that police help is rendered to the Chief Supdts. of the Examination Centres, whenever necessary.

Action has been taken with regard to H.M.'s minute on pages 1-2 ANTE.

The case may be circulated to H.M.(Edn.).

The examinations can well be conducted without the help of revenue officials and can be conducted with the help of teachers available in these districts or taluk towns.

Apparently the reference is to the Legislative Assembly question No 908 in the linked file

During my recent tour in the West Coast in Malabar and S. Kanara, misgivings were expressed by teachers of the present plan of the D.P.I. to have S.S.L.C. Examination only in Taluk centres. The proposals submitted by the D.P.I. to modify this plan and make every place where 75 candidates are available, an examination centre has been approved by Government. To that extent, the hardships have been minimised. The D.P.I. may consider the following points to minimise any other hardships that may arise:-

- (1) The minimum 75 that we have mentioned is not for a school but for all schools put together in any particular place.
- (2) In any place where there are less than 75 students, who have to go to another prescribed centre, except where parents agree and want to make individual arrangements, collective arrangements may be asked to be done through the headmasters of the schools sending students and the necessary charges may be collected by them from the students.
- (3) The nearest centres to which they should be sent may be allotted in consultation with the headmasters, having in view the conveniences necessary to provide for accommodation for these boys in those places.
- (4) In schools where there are both boys and girls, if there is a large number of girls, the girls may be allotted to the nearest girls school so that they may sit for examination along with the girls of that school and living accommodation for them may be found in girls hostels attached to those schools wherever possible

(5) In examination centres, those days may be declared as holidays for all schools and accommodation provided in these schools for the boys who are coming for the examination and as far as possible, nearby schools may be provided as accommodation.

(6) The D.E.O. may make the necessary arrangements for getting them rations for food and kerosine tc. He will enquire into their needs and make arrangements atleast two weeks in advance so that the students will not be put into much difficulty. The Headmasters of the Schools sending the boys also may be asked to look about those arrangements in time so that the students who come for the examination may be properly accommodated and their needs looked after, during the examination days. The Headmasters of the schools in which they may be put up may also be requested to give them their fullest co-operation.
