Sub: Sri. V. R. Ranganatha Mudaliar, Offg. Principal,
Teachers' College, Saidapet - Leave.

Ref: Your T.M. dated 10-3-1949.

The senior lecturer to be placed in charge of the Teachers' College, Saidapet during the period of summer vacation would not be eligible for any charge allowance as Sri. V. R. Ranganatha Mudaliar, Principal should be deemed to be on duty during the vacation.

For Director of Public Instruction.

RVR 15/3/49

From the D.P.I., No. 157-C1/48, d/- 1-2-49.

M.E.S. - Sri V.R. Ranganatha Mudr., Principal, Teachers' College, Saidapet - Leave.

The post of Principal, Teachers' College, Saidapet, was vacant from 1-5-48 to 10-11-48 and the Vice-Principal of the college held addl. charge of it. From 10-11-48, Sri V.R. Ranganatha Mudr., Dy.D.P.I., has been the Principal, he having been re-employed in the post for one year. The college closes for the summer vacation of 1949 on 4-4-49 and re-opens on 19-6-49. The work of making admissions for the next academic year may have to be done during the vacation. Now, for the reason that he has to visit some places in N. India and attend to some private work, Sri Mudr. has applied for leave for a month from 4-3-49 and also for permission to avail himself of the vacation. This would mean that the post will be vacant for ~~3~~ 3½ months. The D.P.I. recommends the grant of the leave and the permission. He has also proposed that, for the period of Sri Mudr.'s leave, Vice-Principal Sri T.M. Marhasahayam Chettiar be put in addl. charge and then, during the vacation, the seniormost Lecturer may be given the charge - as Sri Chettiar himself is on re-employment and the period of that re-employment expires with the ~~end~~ close of the college.

Tho', for practical purposes, Sri Mudr. is permitted to affix the vacation to his leave, for purposes of the F.Rs. he will be regarded to have resumed duty on the date of commencement of the vacation (s.r.5(ii) to F.R.68) and he will accordingly draw, during the vacation, pay as on duty. The Lecturer to be put in addl. charge for the vacation cannot be given any charge after if the permission for the Principal is granted, it may be made clear to the D.O. in the order to be issued that no claim for an allowance from the school will be entertained at any future date. For orders whether the recommendations of the D.O. will be accepted.

I would like to have clarification in the following matter. Now, we have given re-employment to Mr. Margasahayam Chettiar till the end of the College year. If Mr. Ranganatha Mudaliar is to be given leave, Mr. Margasahayam Chettiar should be given an extension or re-employment for that period. But, that will mean, I think, extra cost to Government. The matter may be examined from that point of view and put up.

26.2.49

The position is this - Mr. Margasahayam Chettiar, Vice-Principal has been re-employed till 4.4.49. Mr. Ranganatha Mudaliar, Principal, has applied for leave for one month from 4.3.49 to 3.4.49 with permission to attend the summer vacation of the College from 4.4.49 to 19.6.49. The Director has proposed that Mr. Chettiar may be placed in addl charge of the current duties of the Principal post until 3.4.49, the last date of his (Mr. Chettiar's) re-employment and that the Senior Lecturer of the College may be placed in charge of the College without any allowance till Mr. Ranganatha Mudaliar returns. There is no question of extending the period of re-employment of Mr. Chettiar at all. He will retire from 4.4.49 whether he continues as Vice Principal or is placed in addl charge of the post of Principal.

The D.P.O. has proposed that Mr. Chettiar may be appointed as Principal from 4.3.49 to 3.4.49 during Mr. Ranganatha Mudaliar's absence on leave. This has been subd separately. In this case also he will have to retire from 4.4.49.
