Sir,

I am enclosing herewith an application for a loan of Rs 3,000/- for the purchase of a Car. My car is a 1935 model Austin is in a bad state and spare parts are not available for replacement. I am unable to procure even a spare wheel without which I had been running all this time. I request that the loan may be sanctioned at a very early date. A loan of Rs 1,560/- was sanctioned to me in July 1946 (vide G.O.No. 1384 Edn., dated 18th July '46) but I did not utilise the amount as a small car was not readily available then.

Yours faithfully,

all attempts to trace the same have proved futile.

In G.O. Ms. No. 589 Edn. of 4.3.49, Sri. G.F. Amalanathan, Senior Dy Supt. Govt. Press was granted an advance of Rs. 2,500 for the purchase of a motor car. In April 1952 the A.C. reported that the officer has repaid the advance in full and requested the Govt. to return the mortgage bond executed in respect of the advance, to the officer, ^{duly cancelled.} The S.G.P. to whom the original bond was forwarded for safe custody was requested to take necessary action in the matter. The S.G.P. however reported that the mortgage bond was not traceable in his office. The C.C.B and the M.R.O. also reported that the bond was not received by them. As it was evident that the bond was lost in the office of the S.G.P. the A.C. was consulted whether, in the circumstances, the bond may be treated as having been cancelled. The A.C. has reported that it is left to Govt. to decide the question. There seems no objection to treating the bond as having been cancelled as the officer has already repaid the advance drawn by him in full. Subject to orders two drafts, a draft memo and a draft letter to the Travancore Cochin Govt to whom the services of Sri. C.F. Amalathammathan have now been lent, are sent for approval.
