Sir,

Sub: ESTABLISHMENT - Special school - School of Arts and Crafts - Kuppuswamy iyer S.(Sri) Superintendent - Re-employment after retirement -Sanction-Requested.

Ref: Government Memorandum No.39188-B.1.48.1.
Edn.,dated 21--12--1948.

Sri S.Kuppuswamy iyer, the Superintendent, Municipal school of Arts and Crafts, attains his age of 55 on 16-3-1949 when he has to retire from service under rule 14 of the rules relating to establishments under municipal councils. The appointment committee of this council considered that his continuance in municipal service for one year more will be in the interest of the institution and at its meeting on 4-2-1949 reappointed him for one year from 16-3-49.
I submit herewith a copy of the committee's resolution No.2.dated 4--2--1949.

2. The school of which Sri S.Kuppuswamy iyer is now a superintendent, was originally an Art School and consisted of an Art Section only imparting instructions in Free Hand Outline and Model Drawing, Geometrical Drawing, Design, Paintings and Modelling. Since its management was handed over to the council by Government from 1921, it has expanded gradually and developed to what it is at present.
It embraces now within it an engraving section, besides the Art Section. The school now imparts instruction to its pupil in the following subjects also.

Engraving Instruction:

1. Engraving in wood and metal, diecuts, etching, etc.

2. Enamelling on silver ornaments.

Weaving Section:

1. Textile calculations;
2. Fabric structure;
3. Preparatory-processes-theoretical and practical;
4. Weaving mechanism -processes-theoretical and practical .
5. Drawing.
6. Weaving practical, which consists of multi-treadle weaving, double weaving, dobby weaving and jacquard weaving.

7. Bleaching and dyeing.-Theoretical and practical.

3. The school has grown to be popular and has been doing very useful work. The growing popularity and the usefulness of the institution are mainly due to the indefatigable work of and the keen enthusiasm and interest evinced by Sri S.Kuppuswamy Iyer, the Superintendent, who took very great pains and left no stone unturned in moulding the institution to its present state since he took charge as its instructor in 1921. The municipal council, in maintaining and improving the institution was guided by him. His continuance for some more years as the Superintendent of the school is quite indispensable in the best interest of the institution. He does not look his age and his appearance belies it. Age has not dimmed his faculties and his present constitution seems to challenge the lapse of years. He is healthy and maintains youthful buoyancy and vigour. It is very difficult to secure the services of a substitute for him. With his knowledge and ripe experience in the field and his vigour, zeal and active habits, he can continue to do good and useful work to the institution for some years more, if he is ~~ke~~ but given an opportunity.

4. None of the other members of the present staff can be promoted to the post for want of proper qualification and experience. There is no other probationer who has already officiated in the post.

5. Further, there is a proposal to acquire a building for the school and to reorganize the institution. For this purpose, the services of Sri S. Kuppuswamy Iyer who is responsible for the moulding of the institution and its continued efficiency if made available for some years more will help the council considerably in achieving its object.

6. I request that, in the interest of this unique institution, Government may be pleased to sanction his re-employment for one year from 16-3-49 the date of his retirement, on the pay which he will be drawing on the date of his retirement.
