Sir,

Sub: Fee Remissions - Queen Mary's College Madras
1948-49 Request for age exemption on behalf of certain students -

In their order No. 1446 Law (Education) Department dated 21-8-25, the Government while instituting a scheme of seven full fee remissions in each of the four classes of the Queen Mary's College, Madras, laid down in the last sub-para of para one that these fee remissions will be held under the same conditions set out in the scheme approved in Government Order No. 961 Education dated 14-8-1914. One of the conditions in the approved scheme is that the age of an applicant shall not have exceeded on the first of July of the year in which the award is made, 20 years in the I U.C., 21 years in the II U.C., and so on to be raised by one year each in the next higher class. This is also in accordance with the age-limit prescribed generally for the award of Government scholarships.

2. The Principal, Queen Mary's College, Madras brings to notice the case of three pupils reading in the II U.C. of the college this year who, though overaged according to the age limit prescribed require special consideration in view of their being placed in hard circumstances. I consider that two of them namely, S. Rajeswari and N. Saraswathi who exceed the age limit by 7 days and 1 year and one month and 16 days respectively, really deserve full fee remission for the prosecution of their studies. The Queen Mary's College, Madras, is the only Government College providing for higher education of women and facilities for higher education of women have to be continued liberally. Again, in as much as these fee remissions are specially intended for the Queen Mary's College alone, I recommend that the above two students may be exempted from the operation of the age rules to enable me to award the full fee remission on their behalf.

Yours faithfully,

For Director of Public Instruction.

The D.P. 9. is requested to report whether the two students in question were in receipt of the full fee remissions in 1948-49 when they were in the first year class and, if so, how. If they did not enjoy the concessions last year, the Director is requested to state how they have become eligible for the concessions. He is requested to specify clearly the special circumstances that warrant the award of the full fee remissions to the students.

Ref:-- Proceedings Roc No. 2483 E3/48 dated 28-1-1949.

S. Rajeswari and N. Saraswathi were students of Class I in 1946-47 and they were getting military fee concession, and full fee remission respectively during that year. Both of them were not promoted to Senior Intermediate and so they remained in the same class in 1947-48 also. Since they secured promotion in 1948-49 their names were recommended for full fee concessions as they are poor and deserving cases. S. Rajeswari could not apply for Military fee concessions during 1948-49 due to her brother's sudden death and she reported that she lost the original certificates.
