With reference to the note dated 10-5-48 from the ~~Hon'ble Minister for Education~~ Hon'ble Minister for Education, I have the honour to submit the following proposals.

2. There are 280 senior deputy inspectors including women and 168 Junior Deputy Inspectors in the Province excluding the agency Ranges. The average number of Elementary schools allotted to each inspecting officer at present works out to nearly 80. If this number is reduced to 60, 131 additional officers will be required. Of these 65 may be junior Deputy Inspectors and the remaining Senior Deputy Inspectors. Prior to 1942 each of the Senior Deputy Inspector had only one clerk and one attender. Due to the heavy increase in work in the offices of the Deputy Inspectors, one additional clerk to each has been sanctioned. In view of the fact that the number of schools is to be reduced to 60 and in view of the proposal to sanction additional clerical establishment to these offices in connection with the scheme of monthly payment of grants I am proposing for each office one clerk and one attendant plus one additional clerk where a Junior Deputy Inspector is attached to a range. Though I consider this is not quite adequate I recommend this scale mainly in the with a view to reduce the cost of the present proposal for the present.

3. The financial effect of the proposals are as follows.

	Rs.
Average pay of 66 Senior Dy. Inspectors,	1,08,504

The additional staff necessary in this connection is as follows:-

- 65 Junior Deputy Inspectors.

- 66 Attenders.
- 131 Peons.

The proposal involves an extra expenditure of Rs.3,54,000 per annum.

At some recent meetings of the Standing Finance Committee the Hon'ble Premier had occasion to comment on the inefficiency of elementary schools and it was then urged that one of the remedies would be the reduction of the number of schools which a Deputy Inspector would have to supervise and an increase in the inspectorate accordingly. The Edn & P.H. Dept. support the Director's proposal.

The Finance department advise against the proposal and point out that it was only recently in connection with the amalgamation of boys and girls ranges the number of schools to be inspected by each officer was reduced from 114 to 80, and that in view of the recent reduction and of the high cost of the proposed scheme (3½ lakhs per year) it is advisable to watch the actual working of the present scheme at least for one year before any further reduction is thought of. They also consider that if the proposal is to be pursued it should be dealt with as a Part II scheme.

H.M.(Education) and H.M.(Finance) have recorded the following minutes:

" The supervision of the elementary schools is very inefficient. When a man is asked to inspect about 80 schools, the inspection will be very inefficient. He can visit a school only once or twice a year and the proper inspection that is necessary is not got out of such an arrangement. It is to improve inspection that this proposal is made.

We are spending nearly Rs.5½ crores for elementary education. This is apart from the funds from the Local Boards and a few lakhs more in improving these schools will be well spent. I have consulted H.Pr. and he agrees that such a proposal may be formulated. A proper note may be prepared and put up before the Standing Finance Committee".

At present about 85 to 90 elementary schools are ~~being~~ entrusted to every Deputy Inspector of Schools with the result that there is no proper inspection of these schools. The areas also are very large and cannot be easily covered. It has been found from experience that for effective supervision the maximum number of schools that can be entrusted to a Deputy Inspector is 50 to 60. Further, the ^{Madras} ~~the~~ ^{Libraries} ~~the~~ ^{act} ~~has been the~~ ^{is to be} ~~assent of the~~ ^{Government} ~~General~~ and it is to be brought into force soon. Large number of libraries will be started soon and Dy. Inspectors will have also to inspect them. In view of all these considerations the Govt have decided that the inspectorate must be strengthened.

To the D.P.I.

I remember to have asked for proposals from you with regard to the reduction of the number of schools under each Deputy Inspector. The Government is anxious that elementary education should be made efficient. For doing so, it is necessary that the number of schools under each Inspecting Officer should be reduced to about 60. I had suggested that the financial effect of these proposals should be worked out and sent to Government, so that it may be considered by the Cabinet. That may be submitted as soon as possible.

Copy to Secy., E. & P.H.

Please see the minutes of H.M.(Education) on page 1 above and the reference from the Director of Public Instruction on page 1-2 c.f. At the instance of H.M.(Edn.), the Director of Public Instruction has submitted proposals for reducing to 60, the number of schools to be inspected by each Inspecting officer, with a view to making the elementary education more efficient. The proposal involves the employment of the following additional staff:

Senior Dy. Inspectors	..	66	(95-175)
Junior Dy. Inspectors	..	65	(60-120)
L.D. Clerks	..	24	(45-90)
Attenders	..	66	(24-35)
Peons	..	131	(16-25)

The extra cost works out to Rs. 3,54,000 roundly p.a. excluding T.A. and contingencies.

2. Prior to the issue of orders in G.O. 747 Education, dated 2-4-48, in which the reorganisation of the inspecting staff in the Education department was sanctioned, the average number of schools allotted for inspection to the Dy. Inspectors, was 114, while the average number of schools allotted for the Dy. Inspectresses was 89 in view of the fact that the Inspectresses had far larger geographical jurisdiction to cover. However in the general reorganisation referred to in the above G.O. amalgamating the boys and the girls ranges, the average number of schools to be inspected by a Dy. Inspector was reduced from 114 to 80 mainly with a view to making supervision more efficient. This department then pointed out that so long as the inspection of the present number of schools had not disclosed any serious defect and even if it was considered necessary to reduce the average number of schools under the Dy. Inspectors to ensure greater efficiency it might be done gradually i.e. from 114 to 100. However the average number of schools under the Dy. Inspectors was reduced to 80 in G.O. 747 Education, dated 2-4-48 for the reason that the amalgamation of the boys' and girls' ranges resulted in a saving of Rs. 13,000 to the Government. The present proposal results in an extra cost of Rs. 3,54,000 p.a. (excluding T.A. and contingencies).

3. The reorganisation in the above G.O. would have been given effect to.

need for reducing further, the average number of schools to be inspected by each Dy. Inspector from 80 to 60 does not seem to be clear. In fact the Director of Public Instruction has not offered any remarks on the present proposal nor is there any information as to show that the reorganisation ordered in G.O. 747 Education dated 2-4-48, has not resulted in improving the efficiency. E. & P.H. department have not offered any remarks. As the number of schools to be inspected by each of the Dy. Inspector has been reduced considerably from 114 to 80 only recently, it seems advisable to watch the actual working of the scheme at least for a year before any further reduction is thought of, the resulting in unnecessary and large expenditure to the Government at a time when the Government are considering the proposals for reducing the staff already sanctioned on the recommendation of the Retrenchment and Reorganisation Committee. In the circumstances this department may strongly advise against the proposal. If it is to be pursued, it should go before the S.F.C. & the Cabinet. H.H. Am. Hall see even initially.

Note of N. U. (Edn) for the Cabinet

Another important aspect of administration is the want of supervision in the Inspectorate. At present, E.H.H. No. 34618A/48-3Edn about 85 to 90 schools are being entrusted to every Dy. Inspector of Schools with the result that proper supervision has not been forthcoming. The areas also are very large and cannot be easily covered. It has been found that for effective supervision, we must fix a maximum for the number of schools, say 50 to 60 per Dy. Inspector. In view of the large number of libraries that may be started, the Dy. Insprs. will have also to inspect them. For purposes of inspection, two libraries may be considered to be equal to one school and on this calculation, the Inspectorate will have to be increased. The proposal on this subject is explained in the note for the S.F.C. (Appendix F).

IX. The question is whether the Inspectorate may be increased as suggested in the note.

R.O.C. No. 250 A4/49 dated 20-6-1949.

Sir,

Sub:- Inspection - Reorganisation of the Deputy Inspectors' Ranges - Additional Expenditure.

47602 (4) Ref:- G.O. No. 752 Edn., dated 17-3-1949.

The scheme for reorganisation of the Inspectorate approved in the G.O. cited above, was treated as a Part II proposal in connection with the Budget Estimate for 1949-50 by Government and provision was accordingly made by them in the Budget of this year only towards the pay and allowances of the additional establishment sanctioned.

The scheme involves expenditure on accommodation, equipment, other miscellaneous contingencies and T.A. also, for which no provision has been included in the Budget Estimate for 1949-50. The financial implication of these items of expenditure is detailed below:--

Accommodation:- Public buildings are not likely to be available in the mufasil for accommodating the 66 new offices of the Deputy Inspectors; and in view of the prevailing scarcity in accommodation, no private building on a rent lesser than Rs. 25/- p.m. will become available. A total allotment of Rs. 13,200/- would therefore be required under "Rents" for the 66 new ranges for 8 months in the current year (25 x 66 x 8).

Equipment:- Consequent on the conversion of certain training schools into basic Training schools some surplus furniture may become available for transfer elsewhere. But these may not be available for immediate use nor can meet the entire demand. At least a table and a chair for each of the new Senior Deputy Inspectors and Junior Deputy Inspectors will be required immediately besides one almirah for each of these offices. The cost of this equipment may be estimated as follows:--

1 set of table and chair @ Rs. 80/- for 131 officers (65 + 66)	80 X 131 or Rs. 10,480
1 Almirah for each office @ Rs. 100/-	66 X 100 or Rs. 6,600
Total.	17,080

Other contingencies:-- The minimum expenditure under this item would be as detailed below for each office:

Service Postage and telegrams	Rs. 100
Tour charges.	50
Other Miscellaneous office contingencies as sweeping charges, Belts and Badges for peons, Books etc.	150
	300 for 66 new offices

300 X 66

or Rs. 19,800/-.

Travelling Allowances:-- There will be a good deal of expenditure under this item, at this initial stage, when transfer etc. are inevitable. The enhancement of the rates of Daily allowance and of the railway fares in general, may also contribute to the increase to some extent. At a flat rate of Rs. 200/- for each of the new offices, the total cost works upto Rs. 66 X 200 or Rs. 13,200/-.

The following is the summary of the above estimates:

Accommodation	Rs. 13,200	NR
Equipment	17,080	NR
Contingencies	19,800	R
Travelling Allowance.	13,200	R
	63,280	or 63,300 in round figures.

The above estimates are fixed having in view the present need for economy in expenditure and are therefore the absolute minimum requirements for the current year.

As already stated, there is no provision in the current Year's Budget Estimate to meet the above expenditure nor can such a huge commitment be met by reappropriation of funds as no savings are likely to result this year in view of the deductions made in the Budget under T.A. and office contingencies, with reference to the recommendations of the Retrenchment Committee. In the circumstances, I request that the Government may be pleased to permit me to incur the above additional expenditure and to apply for necessary additional funds while submitting the statement of Grants and Expenditure for 1949-50.

As some officers have already begun to address me in the matter, and as the new ranges have been ordered to be formed from the 15th of this month, I am permitting the Inspecting officers to incur the expenditure detailed above in anticipation of the sanction of the Government. I request that this action may also be approved by Government.

Yours faithfully,

Whitaker
