Sir,

I have the honour to submit the following points for your sympathetic consideration.

When I was taken over to the Madras Educational Service, I was a Lecturer in the Annamalai University enjoying the full benefit of a residential University with post-graduate teaching and research facilities. It was after six years of advanced teaching experience that I was taken over to the Government Service. The University had offered me a membership on the Board of Examiners for Intermediate, B.A. and B.A.(Hons) Degree examinations - a privilege and honour which I had to renounce after one year when I left the service in order to accept the appointment offered to me by the Government. Now for 19 months I have served the Government to the best of my ability and, I believe, to the entire satisfaction of my official superiors on the one side and my students on the other. Thus after eight years of continuous service in the cause of education I am now discharged with reference to G.O.No.Ms.466 Education dated 21-2-1949 without even the usual notice to which, I feel, I am entitled.

The only earning member of a large family consisting of a wife, children, mother, sisters and other relatives and dependants, I have been reduced to utter destitution by my discharge. My wife, who was a Tutor in English in the Annamalai University, had also to resign her post when I was recruited to the Government Service. Now, because of my taking service under Government both of us are left without any immediate means of livelihood in these hard days.

In these circumstances I request you respectfully to re-appoint me immediately to the first post that falls vacant.

Sri V. Gopalan Nair, M.A., was directly recruited to the M. E. S. in March 1947 and has put in about two years service as Lecturer in English. Owing to the recent policy of having only 1 person in M. E. S. for English in certain Colleges, his services having been terminated with effect from 8th March 1949; a gentleman promoted from the subordinate service having been retained. This is at Palghat. I understand that there are to be two vacancies of English Lecturers on the 3rd April and 5th April owing to the retirement of Dr. Peter of Anantapur College and Sri Kedari Rao of Kumbakonam. If Sri Gopalan Nair is posted to one of these posts from the date of retirement of the above people, 3rd or 5th, he will get continuity of service, as he is eligible for leave till that date. May I request you to see whether this can be done.

The D.P.S has since proposed that Sri Gopalan Nair may be re-appointed as Lecturer in English in the Govt College Kumbakonam in the place of Sri N.R. Kedari.

HP 3-4.4

Res whose re-employment leaves from 4.4.49. in Govt. college, Kumbakonam, class for the summer vacation from 4.4.49 and ordinarily it will be sufficient if the re-appointment is approved from the date of re-opening of the college. Having regard to the ~~hardship~~ hardship already caused to the officer, his reappointment from 4.4.49. may be agreed to as a special case.

M

As regards A in the previous page, it does not seem that Sri Nagar can be granted any leave for the interval between his ousting from the Palghat college and his reappointment in the Kumbakonam college. He was discharged from the service for want of vacancy and the period should be treated as a break in service. Pathi (Director) and Finance may see for remarks before circulation.
