Sri K.M. Gowthma Nambeesan, a passed L.C.E. student of this college is working as a Permanent Way Sub-Inspector in the South Indian Railway from 28.8.1948. A copy of the report furnished by the District Engineer, South Indian Railway, Tanjore is attached herewith for favour of perusal.

2. As he has been engaged in the work equivalent to that obtained in the departments recognised by the Government, his service in the South Indian Railway may be considered as practical training for the purpose of the award of the College diploma.

3. I request that early orders may kindly be passed in this matter.

/True copy/.

Copy of letter No.G.48-11 dated 24th November 1949 from the District Engineer's Office, South Indian Railway, Tanjore to the Principal, College of Engineering, Guindy, Madras 15.

Ref:-Issue of diploma to passed L.C.E. student of the College - K.M. Gowthama Nambeesan-P.W.Sub-Inspector, Peralam, Your letter No. P.T.L. 23/49 of 28.10.1949 to him.

With reference to your above letter I append the report by Mr. J.Harris, while he was Assistant Engineer, Tanjore.

"Sri K.Nambeesan was working as Sub-Inspector in charge of the Sub-section of the Permanent Way Section of Peralam from 28.8.1948. As a Sub-Inspector, his duties extended in the maintenance of about 20 miles of Permanent Way, and station buildings, bridges and culverts in that length. He was also in charge of the construction of staff quarters, Peralam, during this period. He showed a keen interest in all the works allotted to him, and took every opportunity in learning his job.

His conduct, both towards his superiors as well as those working under him, was exemplary. His relationship to the staff of other departments was cordial."

The above Sub-Inspector for the Major period served under this Assistant Engineer.

2. I also reproduce the opinion of the present Assistant Engineer Sri N.Neelakanta Sarma on the work and conduct of the Sub-Inspector.

"Sri Gowthama Nambeesan had been working under me for the past six months. He was diligent and industrious and has carried out the works entrusted to him to my entire satisfaction".

I fully endorse their views.

Yours faithfully,
sd. x x x
District Engineer.
