From the D.P.I., No.4/50, d/- 9-1-50.

M.E.S. - Janab V.Habibullah, Lecturer - Confirmation.

The post of Lecturer in Economics, Govt. Arts College, Madras, which fell substantively vacant in 1944, stood reserved ~~for~~ to be filled by direct recruitment, by ~~the~~ a candidate who had rendered war service. Pending the appt. of such a candidate, Janab V.Habibullah was selected by the Commission for appt. by direct recruitment on a tempy. basis. He was accordingly apptd. in Jan'y.1945. Under the Pub. Dept. G.O. at "S"/1-2, he had no ^{even} probationary rights, ~~either~~ in the post, as ~~his~~ his appt. was ordered subsequent to 2-6-1944.

But, later, in connection with the general question of de-reserving 33 1/3 per cent. of ^(the total no. of) war-reserved vacancies in all depts. to enable the appt. of civilians to that percentage of vacancies, the D.P.I. recommended, inter alia, that the vacancy against which Janab Habibullah ^{had been} recruited might be de-reserved so that he might be regularly absorbed. The recommendation was accepted.

The Pub. Dept. G.O. ^{(S)/1-2-} was also subsequently rescinded: Vide "S"/3 and 4.

The Dir. now recommends that Janab Habibullah might be declared ~~an approved probationer~~ to have completed his probation on 1-2-47 (the date of expiry of 2 years from the date of his appt.) and might be confirmed in the post from 1-2-45 (the date of his appt.). ^(the post may accept) Allowing the Lecturer probationary rights with retrospective effect, the Dir.'s recommendation may be accepted.

Janab V. Habibullah was recruited direct on a temporary basis as Lecturer in Economics against a war-reserved vacancy, subject to the condition that he ^{Rad} could no claim for retention in service and should make way for the war service candidate to be recruited in due course. But subsequently, in order that he might be continued in the post, the Govt. decided not to recruit a war service candidate and de-reserved the post. In accordance with that decision, the D.P.I. has now proposed that Janab V. Habibullah may be declared to have completed his probation satisfactorily and also be confirmed in the post with effect from the date of his ^{appointment} ~~probation~~. This Dept. recommend, and Public agree, that the Director's proposal be accented. May be circulated to M.M.(E.&L.) for orders.

Sir,

I have the honour to invite your attention to my letter R.C. No. 666 C.1/47 dated 26th March 1947 recommending that V. Habibullah Sahib Bahadur, Officiating Lecturer in Economics, Government Muslim College, Madras may be declared to have completed the probation in the Madras Educational Service. Although the orders issued in G.O. No. 354, Public (Services) dated 5th February 45 did not lay down specifically that persons recruited direct and appointed on or after 2nd June 1944 had no probationary rights yet the intentions of the Government to the above effect have been made clear in Government Memorandum No.1556 Public (Services) dated 14th December 1946. With reference to the above Government Memorandum V.Habibullah Sahib Bahadur who was selected for and appointed to the Madras Educational Service by direct recruitment after 2nd June 1944 had no probationary rights and accordingly, I withdraw the recommendations contained in my letter cited above.

2. In this connection I may point out that in my Confidential letter R.Cl.No. 22/47 dated 9th May 1947 I have recommended the de-reservation of the vacancy in the post of Lecturer in Economics, Government Muslim College, Madras, with a view to confirming V.Habibullah Sahib Bahadur in that vacancy. Pending orders on this question of reservation of certain war reserved vacancies in the Madras Educational Service, V.Habibullah Sahib Bahadur has to be treated as having no probationary rights in the Madras Educational Service.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,
