Sub: BASIC EDUCATION - Legislative Assembly Question regarding the number of Basic Training schools in the Province.

Ref: Government Memo No.74815 B2/49-1 Edn., dated 4th October 1949.

I furnish below the particulars required for answering the Legislative Assembly Question:-

(a)	i. No. of Basic Training Schools that have been newly opened during this year by the Government	...	9
	ii. No. of Basic Training Schools that have been newly opened during this year by private management	...	2
	iii. No. of Government Training Schools converted into Basic Training Schools during this year	...	6
	iv. No. of private Training Schools converted during this year	...	1
	v. No. of Government Basic Training Schools already working	...	13 + 9 + 6
	vi. No. of private Basic Training Schools already working	...	5 + 2 + 1
			36

The total number of Basic Training schools that are working at present is 36 (28 under Government and 8 under private management).

(b) (i) The number of students that appeared for the Junior and Senior Basic Training School Leaving Certificate Examination in April 1949 and the number that passed are furnished below:-

Basic training schools.

* 115 Q.—SRI A. VEDARATNAM PILLAI: Will the Hon. the Minister for Education be pleased to state—

(a) the number of basic training schools that have been newly opened this year by the Government and the number opened by private bodies and the total number of basic training schools that are existing at present;

(b) the number of students that appeared for the examination last year and the number of them that passed; and

(c) whether the Government have provided employment to those who have passed their basic teachers' examination?

THE HON. SRI K. MADHAVA MENON:—“(a) The number of basic training schools that have been newly opened this year by Government is nine and the number opened by private bodies is two. The total number of basic training schools that are functioning in this Province at present is 36 of which 28 are under Government management and the remaining 8 are under private management.”

(b) The number of students that appeared for the junior and Senior Basic Training School Leaving Certificate examination in April 1949 and the number that passed are furnished below:—

Grade.	Number appeared.			Number passed.
	Men.	Women.	Total.	Men.	Women.	Total.
Junior Basic ..	128	43	171	102	25	127
Senior Basic ..	25	9	34	24	9	33
Total ..						100

(c) Since it is not the policy of the Government to run all basic schools under Government management, Government cannot guarantee employment to all basic trained teachers. But some of the senior basic trained teachers will be absorbed in the Government Basic Training Schools and model schools attached to these schools whenever vacancies arise."

SRI A. VEDARATNAM PILLAI:—" May I inquire whether the Government consider that at this rate they can convert all the elementary schools as basic schools within five years, if not what is their proposal? "

THE HON. SRI K. MADHAVA MENON:—" We are trying to increase the number of training schools as quickly as possible."

JANAB ABDUL HAMEED KHAN:—" Will the Hon. Minister be pleased to state the number of basic schools which have Hindu-stani as the medium of instruction? "

THE HON. SRI K. MADHAVA MENON:—" Notice, Sir."

SRI B. S. MURTHI:—" May I inquire whether the Government have a definite policy of creating as many basic schools as possible, and may I know whether they will consider the desirability of appointing a Deputy Director of Public Instruction to be solely in charge of basic training and basic education? "

THE HON. SRI K. MADHAVA MENON:—" The idea of the Government is to convert all the elementary schools into basic schools as quickly as possible, so that elementary education and basic education may go together. The suggestion of the hon. Member will be considered."

SRI L. N. GOPALASWAMI:—" Are we to understand that those who have come out after training have been employed by the Government? "

THE HON. SRI K. MADHAVA MENON:—" Not all but most of them have been employed."

SRI A. VEDARATNAM PILLAI:—" May I inquire whether the students trained in basic schools are working as teachers in basic schools. If not, what are they doing? "

THE HON. SRI K. MADHAVA MENON:—" Most of them are working in basic schools, and some of them are working in ordinary schools. We are trying to do our best to take in all those who are trained in basic schools."
