p3 and

Reference:-Government Memorandum No.25568-B1/49-1 Education
dated 5..4..1949.

1/ With reference to the Legislative Council Question No.420 contained in the Government Memorandum referred to above I have the honour to submit the following information for answering parts (a), (b) and (c) of the question.

(a) <sup>2</sup> Yes. Aided Training Schools are also required to adopt atleast local body scales of pay. Schools adopting such scales are given the benefit of grant in aid at  $\frac{2}{3}$  the approved net cost, while for other schools the grant is restricted to  $\frac{1}{2}$  their approved net cost as before. Aided Training Schools are also required to adopt Dearness Allowance at revised rates of the Government.

(b) 3 No. The Principles governing teaching grants for High Schools and Training Schools are not the same. Grants to Secondary Schools are governed by Chapter IV of the Grant-in-aid Code, while grants to training schools are governed by Chapter VI of the code. According to Chapter VI of the Grant-in-aid Code grants to training schools will be fixed by the Director after an examination of all the circumstances of the case.

(c) <sup>4</sup> No. In as much as training schools are already treated differently, the need for further differentiation does not arise.

Please see the L.C. question at p1cf and the remarks of the D.P.S. thereon at p 5 cf. The question has been renewed vide p9 cf.

2) The Director has reported that aided training schools are also required to adopt at least the revised scales of pay fixed for teachers employed in schools under local bodies and they are required to adopt the revised rates of Dearness Allowance also.

3) As regards assessment of teaching grants to aided training schools, the Director has stated that in cases where the revised scales of pay have been adopted teaching grant will be paid ~~on~~ at  $\frac{2}{3}$  the approved net cost.

But he also states that unlike in the case of Secondary Schools, teaching grants to aided ~~secondary~~ ~~and~~ training schools will be fixed by the D.P.G after an examination of all the circumstances of the case. It is presumed that the Director sanctions teaching grants in respect of training schools which have adopted the revised scales of pay at  $\frac{2}{3}$  of the approved net cost of maintenance and that the net cost is fixed

after taking into consideration all the circumstances of case as required in Chapter VI of the Grants-in-Aid

A in the draft reply conflicts with B. Perhaps the reply to (b) should be.
