tant Secretary in the former Education and Public Health Dept., Sri A. Govinda Menon is the seniormost candidate awaiting appointment. I recommend that he may be appointed to officiate as Assistant Secretary to Government in the Education with effect from the date on which Sri Balakrishna Menon proceeds on leave.

Sri T. Daniel, Superintendent, who is senior to Sri Govinda Menon, was considered by the Service Commission and the Government as unfit for the post of Assistant Secretary even in 1947. In October 1949, he was again considered not suitable.

The personal files of Sri A. Govinda Menon and Sri T. Daniel are placed below.
