It is presumed that the L.A. Qn at p1 of Edn (B) refers to teachers in aided secondary schools.
 With reference to the L.A. Qn. at p1 of, it is submitted that taking into account the prevailing dearth of trained teachers, the Govt. passed orders ordered in G.O. No. 3066 Edn. dated 5-10-49 raising the maximum age-limit upto which teachers may serve in aided secondary schools from fifty-five to sixty. Rule 10A of the Madras Educational Rules was also suitably amended.

 As the South India Teachers' Union and certain other teachers' organisations entertained certain doubts regarding the wording of the amendment is issued in the G.O. cited, the Director suggested a revision of the amendment making the rule more comprehensive and self explanatory. His suggestion was accepted and orders were issued in G.O. No. 636 Edn d/1-3-50. Mr 4-5 of ② clarifying the position regarding the retention in service of teachers in aided secondary schools up to the age of sixty. It may be mentioned in this connection that Govt. have relaxed rule 16 of the Grant-in-Aid Code for two years (1949-51) thereby enabling the B.P.G. to assess grants even in respect of teachers who are retained in service beyond sixty years of age.
