SUBJECT:- TRAINING OF TEACHERS AT THE VINAYA
BHAVANA 1949-1950.

Sir,

I am directed to say that the Visva-Bharati, Santiniketan, have, at the instance of the Government of India, undertaken to train teachers in Arts and Crafts, Music and Dancing and Basic Education. A copy of the prospectus setting forth in detail information regarding courses of studies, qualifications of trainees, rules of admission, fees charged, etc. is enclosed. It has been decided that the duration of the course in Basic Education will be one academic year instead of 2 years (as mentioned in the prospectus) which may be followed by a refreshers course from time to time.

For the session beginning in July, 1949, it will be possible to offer accommodation to 24 women trainees in the Music and Dancing Section, 24 men trainees in the Arts and Crafts Section and 40 men-trainees in Basic Education. A tuition fee of Rs. 300/- per annum for Arts and Crafts and Music and Dancing Sections and Rs. 250/- per annum for Basic Education Section plus a seat rent of Rs. 3/- p.m. per scholar will be charged from Provincial and States Governments who send their nominees for training. Maintenance expenses of students may be borne either by the students themselves or by Provincial Governments etc. sponsoring them. The Central Government have decided to pay a maintenance allowance of Rs. 40/- per month to such of the candidates sponsored by them as are unable to bear their own charges for maintenance.

3. A number of seats will be reserved, as during last year, for candidates from Provincial Governments and Indian States who may like to take advantage of the training facilities provided at Visva-Bharati. I am to enquire whether your Government wish to take advantage of the facilities mentioned above. If so, the names of not more than 3 candidates for Arts and Crafts, 3 for Music and Dancing and 5 for Basic Education, along with their applications in the prescribed form enclosed may be sent so as to reach this Ministry not later than 10th May, 1949. The Ministry of Education will make every effort to ensure that at least one trainee is selected from each Province or State. Names received after the 10th May, 1949, will not be considered. Additional copies of the application form may be obtained from the Registrar, Vinaya Bhavan, Santiniketan, direct.

4. I would suggest that the Provincial Governments may when they select their candidates, appoint them on probation so that the period of their training is regarded as part of their probationary service. Their emoluments during the period will be maintenance allowance and it would obviously be desirable that they should be the same as those sanctioned for candidates sponsored by the Central Government. They need not conform to the approved scales of pay for teachers, nor need this period be taken into account for calculating their seniority in service. On successful completion of the training the candidates will be appointed on approved scales and the question of their seniority would arise only as from that date. Candidates who do not complete their training successfully, will automatically be rejected, while the Provincial Governments may, if they so desire, have a further period of actual service during which the qualified candidate will still be on probation.

Yours faithfully,

Sd/- (H.S. Verma)
UNDER SECRETARY.

Note on Re-organisation of Vinaya-Bhavana

Alternative Scheme

AIM

The Vinaya-Bhavana should work out the legacy left by Gurudeva and Gandhiji in the field of educational reconstruction of the country in so far as that is practicable through teachers' training.

OBJECT

As an all-India institute, the Vinaya-Bhavana should make its contribution in the field of New Education on an all-India basis. In our opinion that can best be done if the Vinaya-Bhavana made a concentrated effort:

- i. to conduct research and experiment in activity-centred education;
- ii. to train up teachers and instructors for serving in Basic Training Colleges and Basic Training Schools.

RESEARCH AND EXPERIMENT

The Vinaya-Bhavana should undertake research and experiment in the methodology of the New Education. Specific problems with a practical - rather than purely academic - bearing will have to be studied and the findings made available in the form of research papers, bulletins, teacher handbooks, educational aids etc.

TEACHERS' TRAINING

On the Teachers' Training side, the Vinaya-Bhavana should provide for two courses:

- i. An 'Emergency' course
- ii. The Regular course.

EMERGENCY COURSE

Our National Government at the Centre and in the Provinces are keenly desirous of establishing Basic Education throughout the country within the shortest possible time. There is already a number of Basic Schools and Basic Training Schools in various regions. An All-India Institute of the type of Vinaya-Bhavana can justify its existence and best serve the cause if it could supplement and complement the work being done in these regional centres. One way of servicing these centres would be to provide them with 'specialist' teachers well-grounded in the science and technique of basic crafts and at the same time fully cognizant of their educational implications. As long as we do not have teachers who have themselves gone through the whole process of Basic Education as students, the need for 'specialist' - teachers would remain. But this can at best be regarded as an 'emergency' measure which can be discarded later on when teacher-trainees with a pronounced craft-bias would become available.

The emergency course at the Vinaya-Bhavana will admit candidates (who should at least have passed Matriculation or its equivalent) holding diploma in the following subjects - Fine Art; Agriculture; Spinning and Weaving; Woodwork and Metalwork. The maximum age-limit of trainees in this course will be 30 and the course will extend over a period of one year the session commencing from January each year.

REGULAR COURSE

The Regular Course shall be open to graduates in science or arts subjects with at least one year's teaching experience, preferably in activity-centred schools, Basic Training Schools for Basic Schools. The main idea of this Course would be to turn out "general" teachers in the best sense of the term with a thorough grasp of the ideology and methodology of Basic Education. It is necessary that those who will be concerned with the organisational side of Basic Education should have a clear picture of the amount of scope available within this system for integrating life with education, for correlating craft-activities and for developing the emotional and self-expression side of the child. Our Regular Course should be so devised as to give this comprehensive outlook. It is obvious that such a Course, concerned, as it should be, with the quality of training given rather than with the number of teachers trained, should not be confined to one year only. In our opinion the Regular Course, as envisaged by us, should extend over a two-year period, in the minimum, the session commencing from July each year. The maximum age-limit for admission to this course should be 25.

SYLLABUS OF STUDIES.

It is not for me to suggest what syllabus of studies should be prescribed for the two above courses of training. The teachers concerned and experts will surely be able to draw up a workable programme once the fundamentals are agreed upon. It is taken for granted, however, that there will be no separate staff for the research and experiment side, the idea being to provide our regular teachers a scope and opportunity to develop techniques and methods suited to the demands of the New Education.

IMPLEMENTATION OF REORGANISATION

Proposals

The implementing of the proposals will involve the following adjustments:

The present sectionwise division should go Administration and the administration of the Vinaya-Bhavana should be unified under one academic head who should combine the duties of the present Vice-Principals, Registrar and Director. The Principal, i.e. the academic head, will allot duties and responsibilities to each member of the staff and form a link between the administration of the Visva-Bharati on one hand and of the Vinaya-Bhavana on the other. On the academic side he will establish liaison between the Advisory Council and the Institute.

Sections.

The present Music and Dancing Section should be dissociated from the Institute and should form the teachers' training wing of the Sangitabhavana at Santiniketan, along with all its capital assets. On the recurring side, the annual grant of the Vinaya-Bhavana should be reduced by a lump sum (to be decided by the authorities of Santiniketan in consultation with those of the Vinaya-Bhavana), which should then constitute enhanced grant to the Visva-Bharati from the Central Revenues. The Institute, as located in the Vinayapalli, should arrange for training teachers for the Emergency course and Regular Course only.

16 trainees will be admitted for the "Emergency" course and 40 for the Regular Admission. course every year. All the trainees should come on deputation or nomination, from centrally administered areas, Provinces and States.

All applications are to be first made to the sponsoring authorities concerned, in the form prescribed for the purpose by the Vinaya-Bhavana. The sponsoring authorities will consider the applications, interview the candidates, and form a panel of names in order of choice. The panel of names along with all relevant papers will then be forwarded to the Vinaya-Bhavana authorities who will make the final selection in accordance with the total number of seats available. On receipt of their decision the sponsoring authorities will pass orders to their candidates to join the course for which they may be selected. The usual period of probation of one month from the date of joining, should remain in force.

In order that the training is not wasted, it will be in the best interests of the sponsoring authorities to ensure that the candidates are either deputed from their permanent service (in which case the period of training should constitute a part of their service period for purposes of increments, promotion etc.) or nominated with a view to their being absorbed in permanent service under the sponsoring authorities, on successful completion of their course (in which case the period of training should be considered preliminary probation period). Those coming on deputation will continue to receive their usual salary, allowance etc. plus a deputation allowance payable on monthly basis subject to the usual report of good conduct and satisfactory progress. The deputation allowance will be so calculated as to cover all the expenses of training (fees, boarding-charges, cost of equipments etc.). Those nominated should be paid stipends on monthly basis subject to the usual report of good conduct and satisfactory progress. The stipends should be considered as their pay during the probationary period and should cover all the expenses of training as aforesaid.

All trainees, irrespective of the authorities sponsoring them, should pay the following charges:-

Fees and other charges.

Admission fee - Rs. 20/-
Caution Money deposit - Rs. 10/- (at the time of admission)
Monthly fee - Rs. 15 (for calendar year)
" seatrent - Rs. 3 (do-)
" Boarding charges - Rs. 35

The trainees will, besides, be paid a fixed equipment allowance of Rs.150/- which they have to account for with reference to vouchers countersigned by the Principal. Capitation fee, chargeable now from the Provinces and States, will be abolished. It is expected, however, that the Provinces and States would lend their financial support to an All-India Teachers' Training Institute of this kind by making token annual grants (the amount is to be decided upon through negotiation between the Centre and them) and thereby reducing the recurring liability of the Centre.

It is not possible at this stage to estimate with any accuracy the financial aspect of the re-organisation proposal. It can, however, be safely anticipated that no drastic revision will have to be made in the recurring portion of our budget, nor would additional capital expenditures become absolutely necessary in the initial stages.

The re-organized Vinaya-Bhavana should have only two categories of teachers: Senior Teachers in the grade 150-10-250 E.B. 250-15-400 and Junior Teachers in the grade 100-10-150 E.B. 150-15-300. The Principal will continue in the grade 300-25-500. The staff required will be as follows:

Senior Teachers

Crafts - One for Woodwork and Metal Work
One for Gardening and Agriculture
One for Spinning and Weaving

Art - One for Fine Art and Artistic Handicrafts

Educational

Subjects - One for History of Education,
Educational Psychology.
One for Ideology and Methodology of Activity Education.

Knowledge

Subjects - One for Social Studies
One for General Science

Junior Teachers

Music - One for Music and Cultural Activities

Physical

Education - One Physical Instructor

If experience warrants and contingencies demand there will have to be a provision whereby each Senior Teacher in charge of Crafts subjects may have under him one or more Teacher Apprentices (selected from among those who had already completed their course at the Vinaya-Bhavana creditably) to help and assist them in their work. These apprentices may be paid a fixed stipend of Rs. 100/- per mensem.

It is necessary to find out who among the present incumbents (most of them are serving their probationary period and have not yet been confirmed) would suit the demands of the reorganised set-up. We must have absolutely first-rate people who can, by their attainments, experience, character, determination, personal example and way of life, so inspire the trainees as to make this pioneering adventure a complete success. Good team-work, understanding and co-operation are essential as between the members of the staff. All members of the staff should be resident in the colony.

Facilities for teaching practice are the primary requisite of a Teachers' Training Centre. For the purpose of the reorganized Vinaya-Bhavana we would require two types of practising schools:

- i. Teachers' Training School
- ii. Basic Schools.

It is obvious that both these types will use the regional language, i.e. Bengali, as the medium of instruction. We are fortunate in that we have just these types of schools within easy distance of the Vinaya-Bhavana i.e. they are not near enough to be dominated and made into 'model' schools by the College. Sriniketan has recently undertaken to train up about 50 Basic Teachers, and, the Sikshacharcha Bhavana, as a whole, is being modified to suit the new requirements. This training school may be utilised for practice-teaching purposes by the Vinaya-Bhavana, and, in so far as the Sikshacharcha Bhavana is concerned, the language difficulty will largely be obviated as most of its trainees will be matriculates and therefore able to follow English to a certain extent. The Siksha Satra, with its great ideals and sound traditions, will be our obvious choice to serve as a Practising School. There will be, over and above the Siksha-Satra, one more Basic School in the neighbourhood for the Surul village sponsored by the West Bengal Government and the District School Board. Although the existence of these three schools do not form what is called a compact area, they should serve our purpose for teaching practice, to a great extent. Ultimately, we should also aim at establishing a Basic School within Vinayapalli itself, with the children of the colony and those of the neighbouring Santal villages, on its rolls.

It is desirable that the administration and control of both Sikshacharcha-Bhavana and the Siksha-Satra should vest with the reconstituted Vinaya-Bhavana. How this can be done and on what terms the transfer of these two sections from Sriniketan is to be made, is an issue which only the Samsad is competent to decide.

CONCLUSION.

I have already submitted to the Karma-Sachiva a more comprehensive scheme of re-organisation. As that will necessitate quite drastic re-adjustments, we may keep it for the present as a blue-print for our future set-up. In the meanwhile the re-organisation plan outlined above may be given careful consideration. In case the Advisory Council finds it practicable, early effect need being given to the various suggestions, if possible from the coming academic year i.e. July, 1950.

Viswabharathi - Establishment of a College for training ~~in~~ Basic Education Teachers.

From the Govt. of India, No.553/50-D2, dated 6-4-1950.

With effect from 1948 the Govt. of India made arrangements with Viswabharathi, Santiniketan, for training teachers in arts and crafts and music and dancing. With reference to the letter from the Govt. of India on pp.1-2 of G.O. No.2015-Edn., dated 30-8-48 the Govt. of India finally selected one Miss C.S.Janaki, School Asst. Govt. Secondary and Training School for Women for training in Music and Dancing for a period of 1 year at Viswabharathi, meeting from State funds all expenditure connected with her training. In 1949 the Govt. of India enquired whether this Govt. desired to train teachers in arts and crafts and music and dancing and also in Basic education at Viswabharathi as in the previous year. The D.P.I. who was consulted in the matter stated that it was <sup>not</sup> necessary to depute persons for training in Basic education and that if it was desired to send a candidate for the other two subjects ~~skxx~~ he should be given some time to select suitable persons. It was finally decided in circulation that there was no need to send any one for training in Viswabharathi. The Govt. of India has now forwarded certain proposals for the re-organisation by Viswabharathi in the course of study in Vinaya Bhavan and asks for the views of this Govt. on the proposals. They also desire to be informed whether the Madras Govt. would take advantage of the course, if so, to what extent. The proposals for re-organisation are on pp.5-10 c.f. In the scheme there is provision for training teachers in Basic education, (1) in an emergency course and (2) in a regular course. The emergency ~~course~~ will extend for a period of one year and it is intended for the candidates who have passed at least Matrilation examination or its equivalent examination.

The maximum age limit for trainees is 30. The regular course is open for graduates in science and arts subjects with at least one year's teaching experience preferably in activity centred schools. The course is to extend for a period of two years, and the maximum age limit for admission the course is 25.

There are a number of both Govt. and private Basic training schools in this State. Further the teachers from both the Govt. and private institutions are sent to Sevagram, Wardha for training in Basic education. It does not seem that this Govt. need send any candidates to Santiniketan for training in Basic education. The file may however be sent to the D.P.I. for remarks. He may also be requested to offer his remarks, if any, on the proposals for the ~~new course of study~~ <sup>reorganisation</sup> proposed at Viswabharathi.

U.O. Reply No. 6483/49 dated 6th May 1950.

I agree that there is no need at present to depute any candidates for training in Basic Education.

As regards the scheme for re-organisation which has been proposed the emergency course which is intended to produce "specialist" teachers will be of little value to us. Our own re-training scheme is sounder in content. The regular course may be of value but since the syllabuses have yet to be drawn up no comments can be offered regarding their adequacy vis-a-vis the recently re-organised B.T. syllabuses of the Andhra & Madras Universities.

Please see the u.o. reply from the D.P.I. on p. 2 ANTE. He agrees that there is no need at present to depute any candidate for training in Basic Education. The Govt. of India wish to know in their letter read above whether this Govt. wish to take advantage of the facilities offered at the Vinaya Bhavana in 1950-51 for the training of teachers in Arts and Crafts and Music and Dancing and if so to forward the names of candidates selected for such training in the prescribed form to reach not later than 20th May 1950. When a similar request was referred to the D.P.I. last year <sup>he</sup> stated that if it was desired to send a candidate for training in Arts & Crafts and Music & Dancing he should be given time to select suitable person. It was finally decided in circulation that there was no need to send any one for training. It is for orders whether the Govt. of India may be informed <sup>that</sup> this Govt. does not propose to send any candidate for training in 1950-51 <sup>as there is hardly time to consult the</sup> <sup>of</sup> and select a candidate.

As regards the reorganisation proposals the Govt. of India this Dept. may agree with the D.P.I. that no comment can be offered without examining the syllabuses of the courses sponsored by them at the Vinaya Bhavana. The Govt. of India may be so informed.
