In their order No. Ms. 377, Misc. Law (Education) Department, dated the 11th March 1926, the Government were pleased to entrust the Ootacamund Municipal council with the execution of annual repairs to the Government building occupied by the Municipal High School, Ootacamund, with effect from the year 1926-27, and to pay the Municipal council a subsidy towards the cost of repairs, subject to the condition that the repairs are carried out by the Council to the satisfaction of the Executive Engineer of the division. Accordingly, the Government have been sanctioning the payment of a subsidy equal to the cost of repairs carried out to the said building subject to the maximum of Rs. 800/- year after year. The subsidy in respect of the repairs carried out during the year 1948-49 was sanctioned last by Government in G.O. Ms. 3037, Education, dated 28-9-1949.

Owing to the dearth in the technical personnel in the Engineering department of this Municipality, the estimate for this work was delayed this year. It was prepared only during the month of February 1950 and the work was not executed through a Municipal contractor, with expedition (P.T.O.).
