TO

The Secretary to His Excellency the Governor and Chancellor of the University of Madras.

Sir,

I have the honour to inform you that the Vice-Chancellor (Dr. Sir A.L. Mudaliar) informed the Syndicate that he has to be away out of India on leave from the 4th May 1950 for a period of about one month to attend the meetings of the Executive Board and General Body of the World Health Organisation at Geneva.

The Syndicate at its meeting held on the 21st April 1950 considered the arrangements to be made for the discharge of the duties of the Vice-Chancellor during the absence of Dr. Sir A.L. Mudaliar out of India, and resolved that Sri S. Govindarajulu Nayudu, B.A., B.L., LL.B., Barrister-at-Law, Principal, Law College, Madras, be appointed part-time Vice-Chancellor in addition to his duties as Principal of the Law College, to exercise the powers and perform the duties of the Vice-Chancellor and that he be paid an honorarium of Rs. 750/- per mensem.

On previous occasions when the Vice-Chancellor attended such meetings on deputation (vide my letters A.1957 dated 11-5-48, A.1032 dated 8-2-49, A.3170 dated 20-5-49 and A. 6475 dated 24-12-49) the arrangements for discharging the duties of Vice-Chancellor was in an honorary capacity (vide also Statute 19 of Chapter VI of the Laws of the University.

I have to request you to place the communication before His Excellency the Chancellor and obtain his approval, as required under Section 11(2) of the Madras University Act.

Yours faithfully,

R. R. S. S. S.

~~As Principal, Law College~~ Sri S. Govindarajulu

Naidu is getting a pay of Rs. 1250 p.m. as Principal 29/4/50 Law College. The Uny. proposes to give him an honorarium of Rs. 750/- p.m. for which is far more than half his pay.

The period for which he acts as part-time vice-chancellor in addition to attending to his duties as Pr., Law College. On the previous occasions, Q/1 & the Uny. did not offer him any honorarium. H/1
It has not stated the reason or reasons for its present proposal. The honorarium seems to be too much though the amount comes university funds. The question whether an honorarium is permissible is being examined at the meeting of the P.S.G. S. all (E + L) may see.

27th April, 1950.

Dear Mr. Govindan Nair,

I am leaving for Geneva on the 30th of April to attend the sessions of the World Health Organization, as Chairman of the Executive Board. — frank

At the last meeting of the Syndicate held on the 21st of this month, the question of the acting arrangements to be made was considered, and it was decided that Mr. S.
Govindarajulu Naidu should act for me during my absence from India.

In this connection, the Syndicate considered that the heavy duties of the Vice-Chancellor when performed as part-time duties should receive adequate consideration at the hands of the Chancellor. Mr. S. Govindarajulu Naidu has acted during the last three years on four occasions, and has not been given any honorarium. The work is becoming more heavy and the Syndicate felt that it was not right to expect that such honorary services should be given continuously by anybody. On previous occasions, the person appointed was given the full salary of the Vice-Chancellor, i.e., Rs. 2000/- or if part-time an honorarium was given. The Rev. F. Bertram for instance was given an honorarium of Rs. 500/-. Considering, however, the onerous duties now devolving on the Vice-Chancellor, the Syndicate felt that the minimum honorarium that should be given is Rs. 750/-. I personally feel that I have forced heavy burdens on Mr. Govindarajulu on the four occasions when he acted for me, and from the exceptionally brilliant manner in which he discharged his duties, I realise that he should have given considerable time to the work entrusted to him. I fully agree with the Syndicate that Mr. Govindarajulu should be given an honorarium and the minimum that I could think of was also

Rs.750/-.

May I request you to kindly place this before the Chancellor and obtain his approval to the arrangement proposed.

Yours sincerely,

U. M. Sakai

UNIVERSITY - Madras - Vice-Chancellor - Dr. Sir A.L. Mudaliar - leave - Sri S. Govindarajalu Naidu, Principal, Law College - appointment as Ag. Vice-Chancellor - Payment of honorarium -

Dr. Sir A.L. Mudaliar, Vice-Chancellor of the Madras University, has been granted leave for about a month from 4-5-50 to attend the meetings of the World Health Organisation at Geneva. The Syndicate ~~appointed~~ has appointed Sri S. Govindarajalu Naidu, Principal, Law College, Madras, ^(Pay. Rs. 1250/- pm), who had ~~also~~ acted as Vice-Chancellor on previous occasions during the absence of Dr. Mudaliar, as part-time Vice-Chancellor in addition to his duties as Principal. ~~E.E.~~ the Chancellor has approved of the above arrangement under Section 11(2) of the Madras University Act.

2. The Syndicate has resolved to pay the acting Vice-Chancellor an honorarium of Rs. 750/-, and the Vice-Chancellor (Dr. Mudaliar) agrees with the Syndicate, and has requested the Chancellor to accord his approval to the proposal. Governor's Secretary has asked this Deptt. to examine the question of payment of honorarium to the ag. Vice-Chancellor, with reference to Statute 19 of the Laws of the Madras University.

3. Statute 19 referred to above runs as under: -

"The Vice-Chancellor may be deputed by the Syndicate ~~and~~ on University business to any part of India. The period of deputation outside the Madras University area shall not exceed one month. It shall be competent for the Syndicate to make the requisite arrangements for exercising the powers and performing the duties of the Vice-Chancellor during the period of deputation, provided that the arrangements made shall be such as not to entail any additional expenditure to the University."

It will be seen that Statute 19 is ~~not~~ applicable ^{only} to cases of deputation of the Vice-Chancellor. The present case is one of leave and not deputation ~~of the Vice-Chancellor~~. The question of extra cost referred to in the statute is not therefore applicable to the present case. ~~According to~~ According to Statute 18 of the same Chapter, the Syndicate is empowered to make such arrangements as may be necessary for the exercise of the powers and functions of the duties of the Vice-Chancellor during his leave period. The Syndicate considers that an honorarium of

Rs.750/- per month ~~is necessary to be~~ paid to Sri Govindarajalu Naidu, as during the ~~xxx~~ past three years, on four occasions he had acted as Vice-Chancellor during Dr.Mudaliar's absence ~~xxx~~ on leave, without any remuneration. ~~The amount comes from the University funds and Govt. is not put to any extra expenditure there by.~~

4. In 1931, when the Rev.Fr.Betram, Principal, Loyola College, acted as Vice-Chancellor, during the absence on leave of ~~Sir Devanahobbar~~ Sir K.Ramunni Menon, for about 24 days (from 27-4-1931 to 20-5-1931), he was sanctioned an honorarium of Rs.500/-. Please see the notes ~~xxxxxx~~ and orders on p.p.3-4 of G.O.No.692 Edn., dated 27.4.31 and the letter to the Registrar of the Madras University on ~~5.6~~ of the above G.O. On that basis the monthly remuneration works out to about Rs. ~~687.50~~ 64.55. Taking into account the ~~additional~~ fact that Sri Govindarajalu has performed the duties of the Vice-Chancellor ~~for~~ 4 occasions without any honorarium, the extra amount ~~of Rs. 687.50~~ in this case cannot be ~~considered excessive~~ held excessive. On ~~another~~ a previous occasion, it is seen, that Dr.T.S.Tirumurthi, when he was attached to the Medical Department, was permitted to act as Vice-Chancellor of the Andhra University and paid an honorarium of Rs.500/-, per mensem. The University of Madras being a bigger University than the Andhra University, it is reasonable that the honorarium to the ~~Vice~~ Ag.Vice-Chancellor should be more than that.

5. The argument that the extra remuneration to Sri S. Govindarajalu, who is in receipt of a pay of ~~Rx12,500~~ Rs.1,250/- as Principal of the Law College, should not exceed one-fifth of his substantive pay, i.e. Rs.250/-, cannot be applied ~~to~~ this case, as the additional post he ~~will~~ is holding is not under Government and the extra cost is not paid by Govt.

6. In the circumstances, there seems to be no objection to an honorarium of Rs.750/- being allowed to Sri S.Govindarajalu Naidu for the period he acts as Vice-Chancellor of the Madras University during Dr.A.L.Mudaliar's leave. Legal and Finance may see the case for remarks.
