A. Mr. F. Madhava Menon,

Please see herewith a letter from Shri Sarvajnanandaji. While I was office, I remember to have issued an order aided colleges to constitute advisory committees and make provision for the inclusion of two representatives of Government in the committee. We are constituting an Advisory Committee for the Teachers' Training College in pursuance of that order. We shall be glad if you will kindly appoint the Principal of the Government Arts College, Coimbatore as a member of that committee.

A Prospectus of the Training College is also being sent herewith for your information.

Thanking you,

Yours sincerely,

Encl: Two.

Coimbatore, 14th May 1950.

Dear Sir,

3
The Sri Ramakrishna Mission Vidyalaya is a philanthropic and educational institution and is one of the branches of the Sri Ramakrishna Mission. It has within it a Residential High School, a Residential Training School for teachers, a Graduate Training Centre in Basic Education, an Industrial Section and a Rural Service Centre. A Teachers' Training College will also be started in the Vidyalaya in this academic year. The necessary affiliation has been received from the University of Madras and the College will start functioning in July 1950. It is proposed to constitute an Advisory Committee for the Training College. We would like to have the Principal of the Government Arts College, Coimbatore as a member of the Advisory Committee. We shall be obliged if you will kindly allow him to be a member of the Committee.

Expecting an early reply and thanking you,

Yours sincerely,

Swami Sarvajnananda

PROSPECTUS
OF THE
SRI RAMAKRISHNA MISSION VIDYALAYA TRAINING COLLEGE

The Training College is one of the institutions conducted in the Vidyalaya, along with a residential High School, a residential Training School, a Graduate Training Centre in Basic Education, an Industrial Section and a Rural Service Centre. The Vidyalaya is one of the branch centres of the Sri Ramakrishna Mission. It has before it the ideals preached and lived by Sri Ramakrishna, Swami Vivekananda and Mahatma Gandhi. It upholds a life of purity, discipline and service. No work is considered low or high. The greatness of a man is not to be judged by the work he does, but by the attitude and devotion with which he does it. Our young men and women should grow with strength, independence and character. They must also learn to live and work in co-operation with others. The life of the students in the Vidyalaya Training College will be organised with these ideals in view. All work will be planned, shared and managed by the students themselves.

Admission:

Application for admission must be made in the prescribed form before the 1st May and accompanied by a Medical Certificate in the prescribed form and a character certificate from the Principal of the college in which the applicant last studied. Both men and women students will be admitted within the limits prescribed by the University.

Students selected for admission will be notified by the end of May. Places not accepted in writing by June 15th will be forfeited. The College will open on the 3rd July 1950.

On the opening day each student must present his original degree diploma or a provisional pass certificate issued by the Registrar of the University.

Courses of Study:

The following courses of study will be provided:— 1. Basic Education. 2. Tamil. 3. Mathematics. 4. Social Studies.

Students may take any two subjects. One of the subjects selected should be the degree standard and the other of the degree standard whenever possible, or of the intermediate or diploma standard. Arrangements for teaching practice will be in Tamil.

Fees:

No tuition fees are proposed to be charged.

Special Fees:

For reading rooms, games, arts, crafts and excursions a fee of Rs. 30/- per annum will be charged, payable on the day of admission.

Library Deposit:

Each student will pay a deposit of Rs. 15/- returnable at the end of the year.

Agreement:

Students from the Madras State will be required to enter into an agreement with the Government in the form prescribed in Rule 135 of the Madras Educational Rules.

Probation :

Every student admitted shall be considered to be on probation for fifty working days; and if it appears to the Principal that any student is not likely to prove an efficient teacher, such student shall be required to leave the Institution. In such an event, the special fees received will not be returned.

College Regulations :

1. Parallel courses are provided in the content and method of teaching (a) The Hindu Religion and (b) Moral Instruction. Every student is expected to select and attend one of these courses.

2. In accordance with the regulations of the University all students must attend classes in Citizenship Training, Physical Education, Arts and Crafts which may be arranged before or after regular class hours.

3. Practical Training is arranged in the Vidyalaya High School and in other High schools in the neighbourhood. All students must satisfy the conditions laid down by the University regarding Practical Training.

4. Leave: The University requires that an accurate account be kept of the reasons for any leave taken. Leave must be applied for and sanctioned in advance. Written application for leave should be submitted at least one day in advance.

5. The Library Rules must be strictly followed or students will forfeit the privilege of borrowing books.

6. No student will be released from Training until the college course is completed. No student will be permitted to appear for the B. T. Degree Examination who has failed to keep three-fourths of the attendance prescribed by the College.

7. All students selected are expected to live in the hostels attached to the College in accordance with the hostel rules. There will be two hostels for men and women separately with two separate kitchens which will work on division system. The food provided will be vegetarian and room rent will be charged separately.

8. Smoking and such other practices are not allowed.

9. Students are not permitted to engage in any other avocation or to attend any other institution during the course.

COPRESS, COIMBATORE.
