No. 117804/49 dated 20th February 1950

Sir,

Sub:--Sri Brihadambal High School, Pudukottai-- Break in the service of two teachers in June 1949
recommended to be treated as duty.

SW

Sri G. Srinivasan B.A., L.T., and Sri N. Krishnamurti, B.A., were appointed as School Assistants in the Sri Brihadambal High School, Pudukottai before the merger of the State with the Madras Province. These two teachers were discharged during vacation last year by mistake by the Headmaster of the School contrary to the instructions issued by the District Educational Officer, Tiruchirappalli. They were however reappointed on the premerger scales of pay as recommended by the Special Officer for Education, Pudukottai and the Divisional Inspector of Schools, Coimbatore.

2) On account of their unauthorised relief from the school, Sri G. Srinivasan and Sri N. Krishnamurti suffered breaks in service from 20 to 27-6-49 and from 19 to 28-6-49 respectively. As the teachers were relieved from their appointments for no fault of theirs and as the periods involved are short, I recommend that Government may be pleased to treat the period of break as duty.

3) I request early orders of Government.

Yours faithfully,

M. Srinivasan

Establishment - Brihadambal High School, Pudukkottai - Break in the services of two teachers to be treated as duty.

From the D.P.G. Rec. No. 1178 C4 / 44 d/ 20.2.50 & 17.5.50

The D.P.G. has reported that Srs G. Srinivasan and N. Krishnamurthy who were officiating as school assistants in permanent posts in the Brihadambal High School Pudukkottai, were discharged during the vacation last year by mistake by the headmaster of the school. On the recommendation of the Special Officer for Education, Pudukkottai and the Divisional Inspector of Schools, the teachers were re-entertained. But on account of the ~~discharge~~ ^{referred to above} ~~relief from the school~~, the two teachers ~~who~~ were re-employed a few days after the reopening of the school. ~~Consequently there was a break in their service and~~ The Director recommends that the period of break in their service may be treated as duty as a special case. It has been pointed out that but for their irregular discharge, they would have continued in service in accordance with the practice in vogue in the previous years. In the circumstances reported by the D.P.G. it is for orders whether the period of break in the service of the ~~two~~ teachers may be treated as duty as a special case particularly as the periods involved are short.

With ref to the memo at A Overleaf, it is observed from the Director's report on p 3 of. That the two teachers in question would have continued in service ^{during the period of break} according to the practice of the Durbar in previous years. In the Circs and in order to obviate the break in their service caused by the mistaken order of the headmaster, it seems more appropriate to treat the period of break as leave to which they were eligible at the time of discharge and if no leave was eligible to grant them extraordinary leave to the extent necessary. Education may be requested to issue orders accordingly.

The file relates to the recommendation of the S.P.9 that the break in the service of two teachers employed in the Brihadambal High School, Pudukkottai, may be treated as duty as a special case. As the two teachers ~~in~~ ~~question~~ would have continued ^{to be in} service ~~during the period~~
~~of the break~~ according to the practice of the Durbar in the previous years, it was proposed to accept the Director's recommendation ^{to treat the period of break as duty} in order to ~~obviate the break in their service~~.
 Finance ~~however~~ consider that it will be more appropriate to treat the period of break in the services of the two teachers as leave to which they were eligible at the time of discharge and if no leave was eligible, to grant them extraordinary leave to the extent necessary. Pub (Poll) and Pub (Ser).
 have agreed with the views of Finance. In the circumstances this Dept. may also concur in the views of Finance.
