of the Special Rules for the Madras Educational Service is amended as suggested and the rotation made applicable to this post also, the vacancy in question, according to rotation, will have to be filled by transfer inasmuch as the previous one (vacancy No.2) is reserved to be filled by direct recruitment.

3. The senior-most approved probationer in the Mathematics Unit awaiting confirmation is Sri S.A. Mani, Officiating Lecturer in Mathematics, College of Engineering, Guindy. M.E.S. - Sri S.A.Mani, Lecturer in Maths.
Conformation.

Rule 2(e) of the Special Rules for the M.E.S. (as it stood until recently) applied to posts of Lecturers and Profs. only in Arts and Training Colleges. It prescribed that substantive vacancies in those posts shd. be filled alternately by direct recruitment and by transfer from the subordinate service. The rule did not govern the posts of Lecturers* in Engg. Colleges. The conditions of service in those posts differed in no way from those attached to the Lecturers' posts in Arts and Trg. Colleges. Further, the transfer of a Lecturer from an Engg.College to an Arts or Trg. College and vice versa was admissible. Therefore, recently, the rule was amended and the Engg. College Lecturers' posts ~~were~~^{also} brought within its scope. The amendment was issued on 9-5-50.

The post of Lecturer in Maths., Engg.College,

Guindy, fell substantively vacant from 19-9-49. It was considered that the method of appt. for that vacancy shd. be decided only after the Engg.College Lecturers' posts were brought within the purview of Special Rule 2(e) and w.r.t. the methods ^{of appt.} adopted for previous vacancies in the Arts and Trg. Colleges. Hence no officer was confirmed therein.

Though the rule has since been amended, yet, for the reason that the amendment was not ^{made with} ~~given~~ retrospective effect from the date of the vacancy, 19-9-49, the rotation of the methods of appt. cannot be applied to the vacancy. To enable the appln. of the rotation, retrospective effect may be given now to the amendment by a special notfn.

With the appln. of the rotation, the vacancy shd. go to a transferee - vide flag "H". Sri S.A.Mani is the seniormost of the transferee officers who have been declared approved probationers in the Mathematics Unit in the M.E.S. - Arts, Trg. and Engg. Colleges - as a whole. The D.P.I. recommends his confirmation. The recommenda-
