To all Departments of the Secretariat except Development, Finance & Legal.

Copy of letter No. Fac.67(7)B dated 17th January 1950 from the Government of India, Ministry of Labour to all Provincial Governments ~~xxx~~ etc.

Subj:- Grant of paid holidays to factory workers on the 26th and 27th January 1950 in connection with the celebration of the inauguration of the Republic of India.

I am directed to enclose a copy of a letter addressed to the Employers' Organisations in connection with the declaration of the 26th and 27th January 1950 as paid holidays to factory workers. All employers whether members of the employers organisations or not are expected to observe these two days as paid holidays. The Government of India hope that the Provincial Government/your administration will use their good offices to persuade all employers to fall in line with this policy.

~~Reported clear.~~

Copy of letter No. Fac.67(7)A dated 12th January 1950 from the Government of India, Ministry of Labour to (1) The Employers' Federation of India, Elphinstone Building, Church Gate Street, Bombay, (2) The All India Organisation of Industrial Employers, No.28-Ferozeshah Road, New Delhi.

Subj:- Grant of paid holidays to factory workers on the 26th and 27th January 1950 in connection with the celebration of the inauguration of the Republic of India.

I am directed to say that Thursday the 26th and Friday the 27th January 1950 have been declared as public holidays throughout India in connection with the celebration of the inauguration of the Republic of India. The Government of India will be glad if factory workers are given an opportunity to take part in the celebrations without their being made to suffer any loss of wages. I am accordingly directed to seek the cooperation of the Employers' Federation of India/All India Organisation of Industrial Employers in the matter and to say that the Government of India will greatly appreciate if early steps are taken to advise their constituent members to issue necessary instructions declaring the 26th and 27th January 1950 as paid holidays for workers in factories.
