TO

The Secretary to Government, Education Department, MADRAS.

Rc.No.15-N/50 dated 23rd August 1950.

Sir,

Sub:--Use of text books--supplied to the temporary librarians 1949-50--Regarding

Ref:--G.O.Ms.No.2066 Education dated 18--7--50.

With reference to the penultimate sub-paragraph of paragraph 2 of the G.O. cited above, I may state for the information of Government that the books given last year to the temporary librarians are being used by them in their day to day work for classification and cataloging, for references during the work. They will work either with Government as now or with Bodies to whom the Government will send them. They may therefore be allowed to keep the books for their daily work. The recently recruited candidates may be allowed to purchase books for their use.. The cost is however as far as possible limited only to the essential books and there has been no overspending on this account.

Yours faithfully,

the Govt. has spent Rs 70 per candidate

a provision of Rs 70 for each candidate suggested in this connection that the D. P. 9 might be asked to state whether the books supplied at Govt.

expense in the previous years were got back from the candidates after they had completed their training. If books could be supplied to the private libraries of candidates and a smaller expenditure might be sanctioned.
