INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE SECRETARIAT.

(a) If a paper is marked to be printed urgently or as special the Superintendent of the section concerned should sign the Press slip. The Superintendent should exercise a careful discretion in the matter.

(b) Each letter, memorandum, or order, or set of orders, in the file of correspondence should be headed in succession with the Roman numeral I, II, III, etc., the number being written in red ink or blue chalk above the item. The particular papers to be printed in the special issue-copies should be indicated by the Roman numeral (I, II, etc.) by which that item had been headed in the correspondence file. All matter, including marginal remarks or references, to be printed should be written in ink and matter which should not be printed should be encircled. Initials and signatures that are not quite legible should be re-written distinctly.

(c) For rules regarding printing of notes, see the chapter on printing and proof correction in the Secretariat Office Manual.

(d) The number of copies and the details of distribution should be filled in by the Superintendent or clerk concerned.

(e) In the absence of special instructions to the Press to keep matter standing for a specified period, ordinary papers of 8 pages and under will be kept standing for one week, and larger papers for two weeks only. The type of notes and of all confidential papers is distributed immediately after striking.

(f) This slip, properly and completely filled in, should accompany every paper sent to Press; it will be returned by the Press when proofs are furnished; it should be sent to the Press when a call is made for revised proofs or when a corrected proof is sent for striking. When finally returned by Press it should be filed with the original order or letter.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE PRESS.

(a) If, in the opinion of the Superintendent of the Press, a paper has been marked special of urgent necessity, he should send the Press slip to the Assistant Secretary with a remark to that effect.

(b) Unless a note to the contrary is made against the matter, pencil entries should not be printed. The Superintendent of the Press may bring to the notice of the Assistant Secretary any instance of incomplete or careless editing.

(c) Signature copies of letters to the Secretary of State or to the Government of India should be printed on hand-made paper.

(d) This slip should be returned by the Press to the Secretariat when proofs are furnished; it will be sent back to the Press when proofs are returned corrected and should be finally returned to the Secretariat when struck-off copies are supplied.

(e) The names of the Secretary and Ministers or Advisers should be printed in full when they occur on the right hand side, only the first time when they appear on the left side, the initials alone being printed later.

APPENDIX NOTIFICATION.

In exercise of the powers conferred by section 56 of the Madras Elementary Education Act, 1920 (Madras Act VIII of 1920), His Excellency the Governor of Madras hereby makes the following amendment to the rules published with Law (Education) Department Notification No. 45, dated the 21st February 1922, at pages 146-178 of Part I-B of the Fort St. George Gazette, dated the 21st February 1922, as subsequently amended:—

AMENDMENT.

In the said rules, for the rule under the heading "Section 3 (XIII)—School-age", the following rule shall be substituted, namely:—

"School-age" means the period of life of a pupil from the date on which he or she attains the age of six until he or she has received elementary education up to and including Standard V of an elementary school or up to and including class V of a secondary school or until he or she attains the age of twelve, whichever is earlier:

Provided that the Director of Public Instruction may with the approval of the Government of Madras, prescribe for boys or girls of any particular community, limits of age different from those prescribed in this rule:

Provided also that for a period of six years commencing on the 1st August 1945 in respect of any area under the jurisdiction of a district board where compulsory elementary education is introduced on or after the date the upper age-limit shall be fourteen, in the case of a boy and twelve in the case of a girl:

Provided further that in no case shall a boy or a girl be compelled to attend school for more than six years in the aggregate during the school-age as defined above.

Explanation.—For the purposes of this rule, a pupil attaining the age of six in the middle of a school-year shall be deemed to have attained that age only on the date on which admission can thereafter be normally made under rule 22 (a) of the rules relating to the grant of recognition and aid to elementary schools and a pupil undergoing instruction attaining the upper age-limit in the course of the school-year shall be deemed to be within the school-age until the end of that school-year.
