Sir,

Subject:- Colleges - Law College, Madras - Resignation of Sri E. Venkatesam, Part-time Lecturer - Appointment of a substitute.

IN submitting herewith a copy of the letter of resignation dated 1st July 1950 from Sri E. Venkatesam, Part-time Lecturer, Law College, Madras, I have to recommend that the resignation may be accepted with effect from the date of relief.

2. The Law College re-opens after the summer vacation on the 18th July 1950 and the Principal requests that a suitable Part-time Lecturer should be appointed as early as possible, to succeed Sri E. Venkatesam in the Part-time Lecturer's post.
The Principal was requested to suggest a suitable candidate for temporary appointment as Part-time Lecturer, pending the selection of a candidate by the Public Service Commission for regular appointment. In his letter dated 10th July 1950 (copy enclosed) the Principal suggests one, Sri C. Rajaraman, M.A., LL.B.(Cambridge), Barrister-at Law, with about four years' experience as a member of the Bar at Madras, as suitable for temporary appointment as Part-time Lecturer in the present vacancy.

3. I request that the Government may be pleased to address the Madras Public Service Commission to select a qualified and suitable candidate for regular appointment as Part-time Lecturer in the place rendered vacant by the resignation of Sri E. Venkatesam. Pending recruitment of such a candidate, I recommend that Sri C. Rajaraman, M.A., LL.B. (Cambridge), Bar-at-Law, may be appointed to act temporarily as Part-time Lecturer in the Law College, Madras, with effect from the date of taking charge.

4. I solicit the favour of ^{my} early orders.

As my professional work has increased I very much regret to express my inability to continue as a part-time Lecturer in the Law College, Madras. Enclosure II.

Copy of Confidential D.O. dated 10th July 1950 from Sri S. Govindarajulu, Principal, Law College, Madras, to Sri V.K. Krishna Menon, Deputy Director of Public Instruction (Personnel), Madras.

Your Confidential D.O. Rc. No. 1369 C.1/50, dated the 5-7-1950.

Mr. C. Rajaraman appears to me to be a suitable person for temporary appointment as part-time Lecturer in the Law College. He has taken the degrees of M.A. and LL.B., at Cambridge and is a Barrister-at-Law. He has been a member of the Bar at Madras for about four years. I may also state that he is the son of Mr. Justice Kunhiraman who was on the staff of the Law College for many years.

The College reopens on the 18th and I therefore request that the appointment be made as soon as possible. Also I hope that whoever is appointed will continue for the academic year.
