No.1366 A/50-1 dated 12th June 1950.

Sub:- Varadan - Ex-sweeper, Madras Record Office - Appli-

Varadan, an ex-sweeper of this office entered service on 1-4-1927 and, after serving for nearly 19 years, became incapacitated for work, owing to old age and in consequence he quitted service with effect from 1-2-1946. At the time when he left service, he did not apply for any retiring gratuity as he was not aware that he was entitled for such a gratuity under the rules. The sweeper has now applied for the grant of a retiring gratuity. The claim arose on 1-2-1946 and more than 4 years have elapsed from that date. The period of limitation fixed for arrears claims against the Government under
