Despatch Abstract

Provident Fund - Teacher's Provi-
dent Fund Rules - Rule 2 - Amended.

6 JUN 1950
EDUCATION DEPT. MADRAS

Office of the Director of Public Instruction,
M a d r a s.

No. H.S.C. 376 J/49

Dated 9-6-1950.

From

The Director of Public Instruction,

M a d r a s.

To

The Secretary to Government,
Education Department, M a d r a s.

Sir,

Subject:-

Teachers Provident Fund- Amendment to Rule 2 of the Teachers Provident Fund rules. Suggesting.

I have the honour to state that subscribers to the Teachers Provident Fund admitted to the Fund while they were not married do not generally revise the declaration (Appendix I to the Teachers Provident Fund rules), nominating their wives/children as next of kin, after they get married though there is provision in the Teachers Provident Fund rules to revise the declaration at any time- vide- sub-para under case II of Rule 12 (b) of the Teachers Provident Fund rules. Further, there is no provision in the Teachers Provident Fund rules for cancelling the declaration once made.

2. With reference to section V of Provident Funds Act 1925, the Teachers Provident Fund amount has to be paid to the person nominated in the declaration in exclusion of wife/children, in the circumstances stated in para (1) above.

3. In cases where subscribers die without revising the declaration after marriage, the ~~Permanent~~ ^{Provident} Fund money could be paid only after consulting the Government Solicitor, Madras and satisfying the legal formalities suggested by him. To obviate these difficulties to the wife and children of the subscriber, the Government Solicitor was requested to suggest a suitable amendment to the Teachers Provident Fund rules to fall in line with the Provident Fund Act. I submit below the draft amendment* suggested by him for favour of approval.

*Rule 2.

thus:- Rule 2 may be amended by adding a new clause (e)

"(e) In the event of the subsequent marriage of a subscriber or where he has a wife or wives and/or a son or sons and/or a daughter or daughters living at the time or after he has made the declaration in the application form prescribed in Appendix A, then unless the said declaration shall already be in favour of a living wife or living son or sons or daughter or daughters the said declaration shall be or become void".

This amendment serves as a contingent notice to the declaration as in the General Provident Fund (Madras) rules and thus entitle the wife/children to receive payment of the Teachers Provident Fund amount in the event of the subscriber's death.

Yours faithfully,

K. Sankaranarayanan

for Director of Public Instruction.
