Sir,

General Provident Fund - Amount standing to the credit of the late K.V.Narayanaswami Ayyar, Teacher, Government Training School, Tanjore.

Ref: Acct. No.2122 Education under disputed claim of the Accountant-General's office.
Education and Public Health Department Memo. No.514994/45-3-Edn., dated the 29th June 1946.

K.V.Narayanaswami Ayyar, the subscriber to the G.P.F.

account referred to died on 4-12-1944. His wife Nagammal, the nominee to the fund predeceased her husband having died on 21.12.1941. The subscriber to the fund made no fresh nomination. He is now dead survived by two daughters, the applicants herein and no other children.

On the 9th November 1945, Srimathi, the second applicant herein applied through her husband and guardian for the payment of the amount to her and the Government then required a guardianship certificate to be produced. Since then she has attained majority and no guardianship certificate is now necessary and she is herself now applying for the payment.

The applicants are advised that the expenses of obtaining a succession certificate will amount to Rs.100/- and as the G.P.F. amount is itself only Rs.657/- it will be a hardship to require the applicants to obtain a certificate at a cost disproportionate to the claim. The amount became payable as early as 1944 and they have been kept out of the account for more than 5 years. Under note 3 to rule 30 of the General Provident Rules, the Government may in fit cases order payment of the G.P.F. amount to the persons entitled thereto without insisting on the production of a Succession Certificate and on the execution of an indemnity bond with two sureties. The applicants are prepared to execute such a bond and pray that the Government may be pleased to order payment of the amount to them on their executing it.

Yours faithfully,

K.N. Gnanambal.

With reference to the Government Endorsement cited above, I have the honour to state as follows in consultation with the Government Solicitor.

The present petition from K.N. Gnanbal and K.N.
Srimathi is with reference to the Government Memo 51499 A/45--3 Education dated 29-6-1946. As already stated in my letter of the deceased subscriber who was unmarried at the time of the G.P.F. to the exclusion of her elder sister K.N. Gnanambal.

As it is now reported by the petitioners that Srimathi has attained her majority, she may be paid the amount on production of an indemnity bond, in view of the inability expressed by the applicants to produce a succession certificate.

the rules then in force, the nomination continued to be valid

Rule 30, when the amount is more than Rs.500/- it can be paid only to the persons producing probate or letters of adminis-
