Under the orders in G.O. 801 Edna dated as amended, the amount of grant payable to the Telugu Bhasha Samiti in a year is equal to twice the receipts in that year from public subscriptions subject to the maximum of Rs 1 lakh a year and where the amount collected from subscriptions is in excess of Rs 50,000 in any year, the excess is to ~~amount~~ be carried over to subsequent years for purposes of claiming Govt. grant.
The grant due for the year 49-50 has been paid in full.

The Treasurer, Telugu Bhasha Samiti while claiming for a grant of Rs 1 lakh during 1950-51, has forwarded an auditor's Certificate to the effect that they have collected from 1.1.50, an amount of Rs 1,04,426.3.0. up to date. In this connection it is submitted that the Samiti reported in March 1950 that a sum of Rs 87,743/- was collected as donations up to 27.3.50. The exact amount collected so far during the year 1950-51
ie. from 1.4.50 has not been specified.
This information may be called for before proceeding further.

The Telugu Bhasha Samiti has forwarded an audited Statement of the Collections made after 1.4.50 and also the excess amount remaining in excess out of the Collections made in 1949-50.

It may be observed that the Samiti is eligible for a grant equal to twice the amount of Rs 71,594/- (Rs 43,161/- being the excess amount carried over from out of the Collections made in 1949-50 and Rs 28,433/- being the donations received from 1.4.50) subject to the maximum of Rs 1 lakh.

It is submitted that the Samiti has been sanctioned a grant of Rs 38,96/- from out of the provisions of Rs 1 lakh in the Current Year's estimates.

There remains only a sum of Rs 96,104 in the Current Year's estimates, which may now be sanctioned to the Samiti as was done in the last year.
