QUARTERLY ORGAN : 'ANNALS & BULLETIN'

SECRETARY :

Subject :

INSTITUTION MEMBERSHIP

ADDRESS :
UNIVERSITY LIBRARY
DELHI 2, INDIA

TREASURER :
R. SRINIVASAN

In reply please quote No. 212:2

of 15th September, 1949.

I am sure you know of the existence of the Indian Library Association. It reflects in its membership the sparseness and the poverty of the Library Profession in the country. We have to depend largely upon important libraries in the country becoming Institution Members. Institution Membership means an annual subscription of Rs.25/-. Each Institution Member is entitled to nominate a representative to the Association and get a free copy of its organ called Abgila. Our membership now consists of about 60 Institution members and 90 personal members. The personal membership is made mostly of poor-paid librarians. But the better paid ones, particularly in the Province of Madras, have been all along keeping out. This is not a complaint but merely a statement of fact. We, therefore, have to depend more and more on Institution Membership, particularly of Government Libraries. All the Departments of the Government of India have enrolled their libraries as Institution members. I appealed to the Connemara Public Library to do similarly but I have not yet heard anything in reply. I am, therefore, obliged to appeal to the authorities in high level and request you to use your good offices to secure Institution Membership of

- (1) the Connemara Public Library;
- (2) the Legislative Library;
- (3) the Secretariat Library; and
- (4) the Library of the Department of Industries and other Governmental Libraries that you can think of.

P.T.O.

I must in this connection state gratefully that your Director of Public Instruction has helped us in another way about which I made a request. He has circularised the libraries in the ^{Province} recommending subscription for our periodical. The annual subscription is only Rs.8/- But since the cost production of the periodical is Rs.8/-. The purpose of our asking the poorer library to subscribe for the periodical is only to bring the latest library ideas to ^{their} notice. Thus we have to depend only on the more well-to-do libraries. ~~Thus to become~~ Institution Members, to meet our current expenditure on correspondence etc.

Yours sincerely,

S. R. Ranganathan

With reference to the subject and the references cited above I have to state the following:

When the subject of subscribing to the journal 'Abgila' of the Indian Library Association was referred to me recently by the Director of Public Instruction, in my capacity as Special Officer for Libraries I gave my opinion stating that a circular can be sent to the Libraries the Province recommending subscription for this periodical. I have been intending to approach Government for sanction to subscribe to this journal for the Connemara Public Library, and presently the endorsement referred to above with the enclosure has reached me from Government for my remarks.

I am in favour of subscribing to the Journal 'Abgila' for the Connemara Public Library and request the Government will be pleased to

to accord sanction to do so, and if sanctioned, its annual subscription will be met from the budget provision for the Library under the grant for 'Books and Periodicals'. As regards this Library becoming an 'Institution Member' I am in favour of approaching Government for its sanction after watching the usefulness of this new journal for at least a year.

Sub: Libraries - Indian Library Association, Delhi -
"Abgila", the journal of the Association - Institution membership - Request for.

The President, Indian Library Association, Delhi
in his letter on pages 1-2 c.f., has requested this Govt.
to secure Institution membership to the Associations, journal, "Abgila", of the institutions mentioned at 'X' on page 1 c.f. The President has stated that the purpose of asking the poorer libraries to subscribe for the periodical is to bring the latest library ideas to their notice and that the Association depends on the more well-to-do libraries becoming Institution Members to meet the current expenditure on correspondence, etc. It is stated that the annual subscription for the periodical is Rs.8/- and that the cost of production of the periodical also comes to Rs.8/- Hence, the President requests Institution Membership of certain well-to-do libraries in the Province. To become an Institution Member, the institution concerned has to pay an annual subscription of Rs.25/-. An Institution Member is entitled to nominate a representative to the Association and to get a free copy of the "Abgila".

2. The Librarian, C.P.L. and the D.P.I. were consulted on the request of the President of the Association. With reference to the Libraries, other than the Connemara Public Library, mentioned at 'X' on page 1 c.f., copies of the President's letter were sent to the Secretariat of the Madras Legislature, the Chief Sectt., and the Devt.
Deptt. for considering the request made therein.

3. The Sectt. of the Madras Legislature the Secretary Library and the Devt. Deptt. also do not proposed to be Institution members of Library Association. The D.P.I. who was consulted on the request has brought in the journal Abgila to the notice of the managements of all public libraries taken will be reported to E.P.H. Deptt.

~~This Department has no proposal at present

The Library of this department of course contains at present the technical books of not only this Department but also of the departments of Agriculture and Forest, on account of the amalgamation of the libraries of those two departments with the library of this Department in 1939. But recently in G.O. MS. No. 149, Food and Agriculture dated 24-1-50 the Government have approved the proposal of the Director of Agriculture to retransfer to him the books relating to the Agriculture Department. The transfer will be effected shortly. Further it is also under consideration to re-transfer to the Chief Conservator of Forests the books relating to the Forest Department. In the circumstances I do not consider it useful for the library of this Department to become a member of the Indian Library Association.
