Subject: Charitable Endowments - Ratnammal's Prize Endowment Fund
at Dharmapuri, Salem District.

The funds of the endowment referred to above have been invested in Government Securities of 4% loan of 1960-70 for the face value of Rs.100/- and the annual income thereof is less than Rs.10/-. The securities were therefore returned with reference to G.O.Ms.No.451 Firka Development dated 7.5.49 duly endorsed in favour of the Sub Assistant Inspectress of Girls' School North Arcot, Salem, which was later changed to North Salem Girls' Range, Salem and the Inspectress of Girls' Schools, Fourth Circle, Salem jointly as they were the administrators specified in G.O.No.1400 Home (Edn.) dated 15.11.1919 vesting the funds of the endowment with the Treasurer of Charitable endowments, Madras. As it was reported that the office of the Sub Assistant Inspectress has since been abolished, the Director of Public Instruction, Madras was addressed to indicate the party to whom the Securities may be sent and he has now asked this office to send them to the Inspectress only. As with the abolition of one of the offices, the holder of which has specified in the G.O. as administrator, the securities have to be sent to the other administrator in her sole name. Orders of Government are requested whether the security may be endorsed in favour of the Inspectress of Girls' Schools, IV Circle and sent to her as desired by the Director of Public Instruction.

I suggest that the Inspectress of Girls Schools, IV Circle may for the time being, be appointed as the Administrator of the Fund. As the Government Girls Primary School, Dharmapuri was later on converted to District Board Girls School and as there is now a Government High School for Girls in the locality, I suggest that the prize may be awarded to the best qualified girl of the highest form in 'Home Science' the present approved term for the subject for 'Health and Household management'.

If the Government are pleased to approve of my recommendation, necessary amendments will be suggested for the approval of the Government.

Yours faithfully,
