NATIONAL CADET CORPS.

JUNIOR DIVISION UNITS

TRAINING DIRECTIVE.

OBJECT.

1. This directive is issued for the use of Officers of the Junior Division to enable them to organize the training of the cadets of the units or sub-units to which they are appointed. By adherence to this directive the officers will be enabled to put into effect the training programme. Further, uniformity in the standard of training can be ensured by following the lines laid down in this directive.

POLICY.

2. The object of the training to be given to the cadets is to develop character, powers of leadership and discipline of boys in the Schools. Therefore, it must be remembered that the training must be made interesting and enthusiasm of the cadets roused. The training must be carried out, as far as possible, during the School hours when the boys are mentally and physically fit to absorb the training which is being given to them. The officers, therefore, must see that the interest of the boys is kept alive and they are at all times keen to undergo the training.

3. The inculcation of the three main lessons:-

(a) Discipline
(b) Team Spirit
(c) Espirit-de-Corps.

are stressed. The boys should be encouraged to work as a team in preference to concentrating on high individual performance. Further, attention must be paid to detail and what is required is perfection in doing a task. Superficial knowledge and slackness must not be tolerated.

FIRST PHASE.

4. A Junior Division Officer will be in command of and will be responsible for the training of 30 cadets. He or she will not be able to train all the 30 cadets in all the subjects, especially as the number of rifles allotted to the sub-unit is 6 and there will be only one .22 rifle. It is, therefore, necessary for the officer to train Cadet N.C.Os who can undertake the training of the other cadets while he generally supervises the training. Certain lessons can and will be taught by the officer to the whole sub-unit, e.g., Field craft lessons and Map reading but other lessons he will have to teach a few of the cadets while the rest of the sub-unit are taught by the Cadet N.C.Os.

5. On arrival of the Junior Division Officers from their training with Regular Army Units, they will have to enrol the cadets into the unit or sub-unit. Before the officers start training, they must first select boys who are good leaders, e.g., Monitors of classes, to become the Cadet N.C.Os. These cadets should then be put through an N.C.Os' training cadre. The programme for this cadre is attached. These cadets should be trained for a period of 4 weeks. They should do 5 parades a week consisting of 2 periods a day i.e., a total of 40 periods each of 40 minutes duration. At the end of this training, the Officers should hold a test and those who qualify should be promoted Cadet N.C.Os. The training programme will show that these Cadet N.C.Os have to be trained in Squad Drill and arms drill only.

SECOND PHASE.

6. The officer at the end of this 4 weeks' training of the Cadet N.C.Os. can start on the main training programme and put it into operation. The sub-unit should be organised into Section and Groups and Cadet N.C.Os. posted to them. The Cadet N.C.Os. should start teaching drill to the Cadets of their Sections and Groups. While this training is going on, the officer should get his Cadet N.C.Os. to attend parades on two additional days per week and train them in weapon training. This will ensure that the Cadet N.C.Os. will be able to train the cadets in weapon training by the time those cadets have learned their drill. Similar procedure will have to be adopted with other subjects.

7. It is hoped that within 3 months of the raising of the unit the officer will have his full complement of Cadet N.C.Os. who will be capable of training the other cadets in Squad Drill, Arms Drill and Weapon Training and such other subjects while he himself supervise the training. Most of the lessons of field craft, however, can be taught by the officer himself to the whole sub-unit but he must use the Cadet N.C.Os. for putting on demonstrations. These demonstrations must be practised before they are put on.

8. The above procedure entails the Cadet N.C.Os. having to do additional training, but this is absolutely essential if the training is to be successful and qualities of leadership are to be developed in the boys.

THIRD PHASE.

9. The officer must look ahead and see which of his Cadet N.C.Os. will on passing the Matriculation Examination leave the School and the Unit. He must keep a look out for intelligent and good cadets who can become Cadet N.C.Os. When the new School year starts, he must make sure that he has a certain number of Cadet N.C.Os. who can take the newly enrolled cadets in drill etc., while he trains fresh Cadet N.C.Os.

10. In view of this, it is essential that the officer selects his Cadet N.C.Os. from both the Matric and Pre-Matric classes and not only from the Matric class, otherwise he will lose all of his N.C.Os. at the end of every year when they will leave him after passing the Matriculation Examination.

ANNUAL CAMP.

11. The Cadets will be taken to an annual Camp of 10 days duration. This period is the climax of the training of the unit. The unit will go out as a whole i.e. the total 3 officers and 90 cadets and if possible other unit should also join the same Camp. Team spirit and leadership will be chief lessons to be taught. The programme for the Camp period will be sent later.

12. The time of the year when this camp should be held is left to the discretion of the Provincial Government Liaison Officers Junior Division and Headmasters of Schools. It should preferably be during the holidays and most Provinces will probably find the December holidays as the best. The Puja holidays come too soon after the opening of the School year and the spring period is just before the examinations.

13. Each unit will be given Rs. 300/- to expend on the following items during the annual camp:-

(a) Washing charges.
(b) Polishing materials for Cadets.
(c) Sweepers and Conservancy charges.
(d) Lanterns at the scale of 1 per 30 cadets.
(e) Hot weather appliances, chatties etc.

The money will be drawn from the Provincial Government. The school authorities will also help with funds.

Director, National Cadet Corps.

NATIONAL CADET CORPS.
JUNIOR DIVISION UNITS
TRAINING PROGRAMME.

1. The Training Programme has been worked out for a period of eight months. It is presumed that eight months will be available for imparting training, out of 12 months. The vacations, e.g., Summer Pujas, X'mas and other minor holidays will be covered in the remaining four months.

2. The weeks have been worked out at 4 weeks per month - yielding a total of 32 weeks - 6 periods have been allotted per week - totalling 192 periods. The round figure of 190 has been taken for the purpose of this programme.

3. Parades should be held on 3 days in the week; of two periods each day; each period being of 40 minutes duration. This makes, 40 x 2 - 80 minutes x 3 - 240 minutes - 4 hours per week. This is considered the most suitable method of evenly distributing the training over the week. It is however, possible that local conditions may entail the splitting up of the periods in a different way, e.g. one period a day for 6 days in the week. Such alterations or other adjustments in the programme is the responsibility of the Junior Division Officer in charge of the unit or the sub-unit. He should arrange this in consultation with the Headmaster of the school providing the unit or the sub-unit.

4. There are 13 (thirteen) spare periods in the programme. These will be utilised for:-

(i) Revision of any lesson in which the cadets are weak.
(ii) Adjusting any breaks in the training due to undeclared holidays.
(iii) Extra training for an inspection parade.

5. A cadet is expected to qualify in Certificate A Part I at the end of the first year and in Certificate A Part II at the end of the Second year.

6. Training pamphlets will be sent to units as soon as available. Special attention is to be paid to the 'Remarks' and 'Notes' in the Training Programme. Perfection in the lessons taught is to be aimed at rather than cramming a lot of technical knowledge into the cadets.

7. 'Training Directive' on how to organise your training so as to ensure smooth running of the Junior Division Units and Sub-units is forwarded also.

8. Training Programme for Certificate A Part II will be forwarded later.

EDUCATION DEPARTMENT

Rc. 581-W.4/50 dated 17--4--1951

Sir,

Sub: National Cadet Corps - Junior Division - Payment of allowances and grants for 1950-51

Ref:1. G.O.Ms. 2621-Edn. dated 18..9..1950
2. Government Memo.No. 38812-B/50-2 Edn. dated 18.12.50
3. Accountant-General's letter No. T.9. Edn. VI-1 dated 3.4.51

I have the honour to report that in G.O.Ms. No. 2621 Edn. dated 18-9-50 sanction was accorded for the payment of Refreshment allowance to cadets at annas four per parade per cadet for 7 months approximately on an average of 12 parades per month. But the National Cadet Corps programme as chalked out by the Liaison Officer was for 32 weeks and thereby the parades had to be conducted during the 8th month also. Therefore, sanction was accorded to the incurring of expenditure on refreshment allowance during the 8th month also in Government Memo. No. 38812-B/50-2 Edn. dated 18.12.50 in order to keep up the programme of the National Cadet Corps.

Later it was noticed that due to the Dasara and Christmas holidays the total number of 95 parades as per the National Cadet Corps programme had to be spread over more than 8 months. Since the total expenditure on refreshment allowance is not affected thereby the Headmasters of Schools were permitted in my proceedings Rc.No. 581-W.4/50 dated 5.2.1951 to draw refreshment allowance for the actual number of parades attended by cadets up to a maximum of 95 parades though it may be spread over more than 8 months.

The Accountant-General, Madras requires in his letter No. T.9. Edn. VI-1 dated 3-4-51 confirmation by Government on my proceedings referred to and he has also stated that bills claiming refreshment allowance have been passed provisionally by him even though the parades were spread over 8 months.

In the above circumstances, I request that Government may be pleased to confirm the drawal of refreshment allowance to cadets up to a maximum of 95 parades even though the parades may be spread over 8 months or more.

Yours faithfully,

for Director of Public Instruction
